Ike Won't Yield on Bricker Plan or Current Alternates

BIG THREE REJECTS RUSSIA'S GERMAN TREATY. Big Three western powers joined with West Germany in Berlin to reject Russia's treaty plan for a neutralized Germany. The western powers charged that it would leave free Europe open to aggression. Taking part in the Big Four conference of foreign ministers were (from lower left) Russia's Andrei Gromyko, V. M. Molotov and Georgi Zarubin; and for the United States, Douglas MacArthur 2nd, James Conant and John Foster Dulles.

Little Hope Seen of Breaking Big 4 Deadlock on Germany

Illness of Pope Isn't Serious, Vatican Avers

Reports That English Specialist Called In Termed 'Unfounded'

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican newspaper l'Osservatore Romano, in evident effort to allay growing concern over the health of Pope Pius XII said today, "The state of the supreme pontiff, thanks to God, continues to improve."

The newspaper also described as "absolutely unfounded" reports in the Italian press that an English specialist who attended the late King George VI of Britain had been called for consultation.

Had Heightened Fears

This report, printed in both Il Messaggero and Il Tempo of Rome, conservative newspapers, had heightened worry in Vatican circles that the pontiff may be suffering from cancer.

King George died of a thrombosis in 1952 after he had been operated upon for cancer of the lung.

The Vatican newspaper, in its lengthiest comment upon the Pope's condition since he was forced to cancel a big general audience just a week ago today, said during the past two days a part of the press had made "conjectures that were arbitrary and inconsistent with the news."

"Bits of news," it said, "have been gathered here and there and attributed to 'authoritative sources' with the aim of validating that which was only the fruit of mere fantasy."

Gastric Disturbance

A Vatican press office bulletin yesterday said medical examinations with "happily negative results" had established that the disturbance from which the Pope suffers is of "a gastric nature, provoked by nonadequate functioning of the neuro-digestive system."

The announcement appeared to be aimed at dispelling the fears of cancer. As described in that bulletin, the ailment is nervous indigestion. Hiccuping from time to time disturbs the Pope's sleep. Four German nuns watch over him in his private Vatican Palace apartment.

The Messaggero and Tempo accounts said the Pope had been placed on a liquid diet. They said he suffers stomach pains that require frequent applications of ice packs for relief.

The Pope's private physician, Dr. Riccardo Galeazzi Lisi, made his regular morning examination of the Pontiff, but declined to discuss his condition.

The pro-secretary of state for ordinary affairs of the Roman Catholic Church, Msgr. Giovanni Battista Montini, represented the Pope yesterday at the annual presentation of candles by Rome churchmen. In response to inquiries about the Pope's health, he said, "Thank God he is better."

Western Diplomats Await Molotov's Proposals

BERLIN (AP)—The Western Big Three conferred at length today to see what might be salvaged out of the foreign ministers conference in spite of a deadlock with Russia on the German problem.

Secretary of State Dulles, France's Bidault and British Foreign Secretary Eden discussed the crisis at Eden's headquarters and also pieced together their strategy for the afternoon session of the Big Four in the Russian Embassy.

Ahead of them lay the certainty that Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov would drop in one more unacceptable thesis on German unification. Molotov promised he would have a detailed plan for "free elections." By the very fact that he has one, he served notice he has little use for the Western plan.

The Western plan calls for free and secret voting first. Moscow believes in merging the East and West German governments into a provisional regime that would perpetuate its German Communist vassals.

French sources reported that the Western delegates still figured the conference might possibly produce some lessening of tension in Germany by easing trade and frontier problems, and that a chance exists fo. negotiation on Korea and Indochina in some form.

But for German unity, the outlook was bleak unless Molotov did the unexpected.

2 Men Hauling Nitroglycerine Killed in Blast

MCARTHUR, Ohio (AP)—Company officials plan to begin an investigation today into the cause of an explosion at the Austin powder plant near here which killed two former high school athletes.

James Ross Jr., 20, of Hamden, Vinton County, and Ralph Hutchison, 25, of Wellston were killed yesterday as they were pushing a rubber-tire buggy loaded with 267 pounds of nitroglycerine between two plant buildings.

Ralph Fornwalt, plant superintendent, said there were no eye witnesses to the explosion. He said no one else was injured and there was little property damage.

Both Ross and Hutchison were star high school basketball and football players. Ross played at McArthur and Hutchison at Wellston.

Site To Be Picked Soon For New TB Hospital

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state health director said today selection of a site for the new 1½ million dollar state tuberculosis hospital in Southeastern Ohio may be decided soon.

Dr. John D. Porterfield said "we have completed the field work and the collection of data is about in final form; we hope to have executive sessions within the next week."

Selection of the site is to be based on results of a long survey which included areas in Zanesville, Cambridge, Marietta, Gallipolis, Athens, Logan and Nelsonville.

Local Teacher Withdraws His Congress Bid

Mark Baker Leaves Field in Democratic Race to Kenton Man

Mark Baker, Harding High School science teacher, today announced he is withdrawing from seeking the Democratic candidacy for eighth Congressional district representative.

At the time he announced his intention of becoming a candidate for this post on Jan. 21, Baker said he believed no one else would attempt to seek the Democratic nomination. However, he learned Monday that Thomas M. Dowd of Kenton was expecting to file his petition Wednesday for the office.

Seeks Party Unity

In a letter announcing his withdrawal, Baker listed two reasons:

"First, since I am employed as science teacher at the Harding High School until June, I would have no time to devote to winning a primary election.

"Secondly, in the best interest of the party I do not believe that there should be a bitterly fought primary contest."

He went on to say that he wished "to thank all of those people who circulated and signed my petitions which made it possible for me to have filed if I had thought it best to do so. I deeply appreciate the many favorable comments and good wishes extended to me since I announced my intentions to seek the nomination."

Betts Is GOP Candidate

Incumbent Jackson Betts of Findlay, Republican candidate for the post, was the only person who has filed with the Tiffin board of elections this morning.

Dowd, a Kenton attorney and farmer, said this morning he was expecting to file his petitions this afternoon. Candidates for this post must file their petitions with the board of elections serving the most populous county in the district.

Meanwhile, as the 4 p.m. filing deadline approached today, eight Republicans and six Democrats seeking county central committee posts filed petitions with the local board of elections.

Republicans are Marguerite Bull of 279 S. High St., Precinct 5-A; Louis Conkle of 313 Marion Ave., Precinct 4-A; John V. Ruth of 211 Bain Ave., Precinct 5-B; Troy DeLong of near Green Camp, Green Camp Township precinct; Howard McCurdy of near Marion, Marion Township north precinct; Harry D. Cahill of 128 W. Fairgrounds St., Precinct 2-B; Ferol Mae Burley of 359 S. Grand Ave., Precinct 6-D; and Dwight Clinger of near LaRue, Grand Township precinct.

Democrats filing were Harry Reynolds of near Marion, Pleasant Township north precinct; Norman Withrow of near Marion, Big Island Township precinct; Salo Leathem of near Galion, Tully Township precinct; Harry Snyder of near LaRue, LaRue precinct; E. Eugene Foos of near Caledonia, Claridon Township north precinct; and Harry E. Zieg of 471 E. Center St., Precinct 6-A.

Indian Holy Ceremony Is Death Scene

200 Dead, 1,000 Hurt As Throng Stampedes Along Sacred Ganges

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—An estimated 200 Hindu pilgrims were crushed to death and at least 1,000 were injured early today at Allahabad when a crowd three million strong stampeded into the holy waters at the joining of the Ganges and Jumna rivers, according to reports reaching here.

Eyewitness accounts said 200 square yards along the sandy banks of the Ganges were strewn with bodies after the police cleared away the panic-stricken throngs of bathers at the Kumbh Mela festival.

Officials Won't Comment

Official sources at Allahabad declined to comment on any aspect of the tragedy and would give no official casualty figures.

Prime Minister Nehru was to visit the Kumbh Mela today and Indian President Rajendra Prasad had been scheduled to join the bathers. But there were no indications where Nehru and Prasad were when the stampede occurred.

The vast horde of pilgrims had gathered at the rivers' confluence in eastern India in observance of the orthodox Hindu belief that bathing there during the Kumbh Mela spares them the pangs of rebirth into a new incarnation.

Once Every 12 Years

The festival, from Jan. 14 to March 4, is held only every 12 years. It commemorates a battle on the site in Hindu mythology in which the Gods defeated a horde of demons.

More than two million of the pilgrims had waited all night on the river banks amid cold rains. They hoped to bathe during the first three hours after the daylight eclipsed the new moon, considered by the Hindus the most auspicious time for the ceremony.

Their frenzied eagerness to reach the waters resulted in the tragedy.

House Votes Change In Congress Pensions

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to increase pension payments to Congress members was passed by the House without opposition or discussion yesterday and sent to the Senate.

One new provision would lower the retirement age for House members and senators. Present law permits pension payments only after a member has reached the age of 62 (unless he's disabled), and then only if he has paid into the pension fund for at least six years. The proposed new law would permit retirement at full benefits at age 60 after 10 years of service, or at age 55 after 10 years of service but at a slightly reduced rate.

Helps Crack Spy Ring

Russian Who Fled Bares Red Secrets

TOKYO (AP)—A trustworthy American military source said today a Russian diplomat - spy reported missing last week is revealing secrets of a Red spy ring in Japan to U. S. intelligence agents on Okinawa.

The source, who cannot be identified, said inside secrets from the "highly efficient agent" are helping crack the spy ring.

The diplomat, Yuri Alexandrovich Rastovorov, apparently fled in terror from the defunct Russian mission in Tokyo, the source said, helping "set up a spy network that has already penetrated some of the highest levels of the Japanese government."

Kidnap Claim 'Ridiculous'

"Rastovorov left out of fear for his life," the source said. "The claim of the Russian mission that he was kidnaped by the Americans is ridiculous."

Rastovorov disappeared Jan. 24.

The American source said he fled after being ordered back to Moscow because he apparently was found "softening" toward Americans.

The source said a Russian intelligence agent accompanying a Russian ice-skating team here in January brought orders for Rastovorov to return home.

The source also said two other Russian agents in Tokyo—both friends of Rastovorov—wanted to give themselves over to the Americans, but are being sent home guarded by five other Russians.

Believed MVD Colonel

The American source said Rastovorov is believed to be a lieutenant colonel in the MVD (secret police). Such a rank would make him a key figure in a spy ring here.

There has been no official American comment on the case here or in Washington, other than denials that Rastovorov's whereabouts are known.

The source said Rastovorov has been under close American surveillance more than a year.

"He was not being recalled because of any bungle," the informant said. "He was a highly efficient agent."

Winning Rastovorov away from the Soviets could be one of the greatest American Army intelligence exploits since the end of World War II.

A man of his rank would probably be able to name every important Communist spy in Japan and also provide clues for the missing leaders of the Japanese Communist party, who went underground about four years ago.

Senate Delays Vote on Labor Board Vacancy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nomination of Albert C. Beeson to the National Labor Relations Board faced indefinite delay today as the Senate Labor Committee called for full information on his pension rights with a San Jose, Calif., firm.

The committee, after questioning Beeson for six hours, voted 5-3 last night to defer Senate action on his nomination by President Eisenhower until it could question Paul L. Davies, president of the Food Machinery & Chemical Corp. or some other official of the firm. The committee also wants to examine company records bearing on the Beeson pension situation.

Beeson has told the committee recommended by the committee last week on a 7-6 party line vote, is former industrial relations vice president of that company. Committee Democrats have opposed his nomination, contending he is a "company man" and thus could not approach his NLRB duties impartially.

Beeson has pledged that he would be unbiased.

The pension question arose during Beeson's questioning on an apparent contradiction between his testimony to the committee and an interview published by the San Jose Mercury.

Beeson has told he committee he has no agreement to return to the company, but company Democrats produced an article from the Mercury quoting him as saying he expected to resume his duties with the San Jose firm at the end of his one-year term.

The nominee said he was mis-

Big Names Get in Race

Filing Deadline at Hand, Political Picture Clears

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — All the cards of Ohio's political hopefuls will be on the table today. The deadline for filing petitions for public office is 4 p. m.

The last-minute rush was mounting yesterday as some of the big names in Ohio politics began hustling to beat the gun and get their petitions on the desk of the secretary of state.

Saxbe, Burke File

Two men who want the same job—that of U.S. senator—were among the latest to file. Both William Saxbe, Republican speaker of the Ohio House, and Democratic Sen. Thomas A. Burke, the former Cleveland mayor who was appointed to succeed the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, turned in signatures supporting them.

Saxbe, the Mechanicsburg attorney who blasted Republican hopes for complete party harmony when he decided to run against, GOP-endorsed George Bender, gathered his signatures in 82 counties. Burke's came from all of Ohio's 88.

Bender, U.S. congressman representing the 23rd District in Cuyahoga County, filed for senator last Friday. The winner of the Saxbe-Bender battle at the May primary, will oppose Burke, Gov. Frank J. Lausche's choice, in the Nov. 2 general election.

Lausche was another to file yesterday. He recently announced his intention to seek a fifth term as governor. Yesterday he made it official. Biggest obstacle in his quest for an unprecedented fifth term is James A. Rhodes, Republican state auditor and former three-term mayor of Columbus.

Rhodes, who apparently will run unopposed for the Republican nomination, filed earlier this week.

The battle lines are nearly all drawn. Only a few candidates are expected to file today.

O'Neill Still To File

One of them is Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill. The Marietta Republican has made it plain he wants a crack at a third term. It looks as though he will be opposed by Paul F. Ward, the Columbus Democrat O'Neill beat for the job in 1952.

John J. Gallagher of Cleveland is expected to file, for the Democratic nomination for state treasurer.

The Republican incumbent, Roger W. Tracy of Columbus and Joseph T. Ferguson, former four-

'52 Blast Was First H-Bomb Test, Says Ike

Explosion Dwarfed Others, He Reveals in Message to Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower says the huge 1952 atomic blast in the Pacific was "the first full-scale thermonuclear explosion in history . . . the first step in the hydrogen weapon program of the United States."

His statement to Congress yesterday was the first official claim that the United States got the jump on Russia with a full-scale hydrogen explosion Moscow announcing a hydrogen explosion last summer, said then the United States no longer had a monopoly in the field.

Unofficial letters from the Eniwetok test site in the fall of 1952 described the big blast as wiping out an island.

"At that time," Eisenhower said, "it represented the farthest advance of research and development in nuclear weapons. This explosion, which dwarfed the atomic explosions of World War II, was but a stage in the steady improvement of our nuclear weapons.

"These improvements will be continued—in the hope that our weapons will deter war, and in the determination that we shall be able to retaliate immediately, with crushing force, if war should come."

Secretary of Defense Wilson, meanwhile, told a news conference he does not regard Russian talk of its atomic strength as just bluff, and he added: "I personally wish we could quit rattling the atomic bomb."

He said if Russia should agree to atomic disarmament, the United States would have to take a "second new look" at its military program, which places emphasis on air power and new weapons, including atomic ones.

The President's statement accompanied films on the Eniwetok test, shown privately to congressmen as the prelude to probable public exhibitions throughout the country within a few weeks.

An informed congressional source, asking not to be named, said the President plans to give a fuller appraisal of America's nuclear position in a special message to Congress, probably before Feb. 20. He said the message would cover important atomic legislation which the President will propose.

Britain's Queen Cheered On Arrival in Australia

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — The cheers of an estimated million of her subjects resounded around Britain's Queen Elizabeth II today—her first in the Commonwealth of Australia.

The welcome given the Queen and the Duke of Edinburg on their arrival from New Zealand for an eight-week tour varied from a restrained, over-awed greeting at the tree-lined Farm Cove of Sydney's harbor to a full-throated tumultuous roar as they drove through the city streets in a big, open car.

The Queen was welcomed by the Governor General, Field Marshal Sir William Slim, who represents the crown here; the Governor of New South Wales, Lt. Gen. Sir John Northcott; Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies and the Premier of New South Wales, John J. Cahill. She is the first reigning British monarch to set foot on Australian soil.

Wants Power Balance To Be Retained

Showdown on Treaty Amendment Due as Compromise Bid Fails

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today he will uncompromisingly, oppose any attempt to change the traditional balance of power among the branches of the federal government.

The President's general comment at a news conference came as the Senate headed toward showdown votes on the Bricker constitutional amendment on treaty powers.

Eisenhower declined specific comment on various proposals put before the Senate as possible substitutes for the plan by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio).

Intricate Question

The President said, however, that this is a very, very intricate question which should be studied soberly and on a non-partisan basis to determine what is good for the United States in the long run.

Thus the President declined to endorse a move by the Senate Republican leadership to revise the Bricker amendment.

Neither did he give an opinion on a different proposal which is being pressed by Sen. George (D-Ga) in the wake of collapse of bipartisan talks held in the past few days in an effort to get agreement on some proposal which could command the necessary two-thirds vote.

Eisenhower declared emphatically that he will not compromise one bit—one single word—in any way which would alter the traditional balance of power between the three branches of government — executive, legislative and judicial.

Okays Compromise

He repeated that he still is willing to endorse any compromise proposal designed to make it clear that no treaty shall contravene the Constitution.

The Republican high command in the Senate battle is composed of Sens. Knowland (Calif), Ferguson (Mich.), Millikin (Colo.) and Saltonstall (Mass.).

The stiffest threat to their leadership was from Sen. George.

George appeared to have rallied a majority of the Senate's 48 Democrats behind his action in breaking off bi-partisan negotiations for a compromise. He offered in the Senate yesterday as a substitute for Bricker's proposal amendments of his own to which

3 Other 'R's' Needed, Says School Leader

Respect, Responsibility And Religion Listed by Holt in Rotary Address

E. E. Holt of Springfield, former superintendent of Marion City Schools, was guest speaker at the Marion Rotary Club weekly luncheon meeting Tuesday at Hotel Harding.

This was the first in a series of four programs arranged by Howard Swink, program chairman for the month, to deal with the importance of education in preparing a boy or girl for a business career.

Mr. Holt's subject was "Preparation for College" which was concerned with the student's life in high school.

Heads Springfield Schools

Mr. Holt, a past president of the Marion Rotary Club, is superintendent of schools at Springfield.

In speaking of preparing a boy or girl for college while in high school, Mr. Holt said there should be three other R's added to the regular and well-known three R's. The additional ones should be respect, responsibility and religion. He discussed each of these divisions.

He related to the group many experiences and instances in which he has come into contact regarding the home life of children. He said that especially in high school has it been noticed that many boys and girls are indifferent to their schooling and studies.

In many cases he added, it has been found it is because there is no challenge in the school work, and thus there is a definite problem created.

How Problem Was Solved

The speaker told his audience of one case in particular in which a boy wouldn't learn and the school principal thought he should be punished. But, a talk between the school psychologist and the boy was arranged and through this talk it was found the boy ranked in the upper two per cent of his class in mentality. This created a challenge for the boy and he began to study and learn.

He referred to articles which are being published in various magazines concerning the fact that schools of today are not adequately educating the children. Mr. Holt said it is a definite loss to the nation not to discover the abilities of the boys and girls and the public has a definite responsibility toward this.

The responsibilities of youth in driving automobiles also were discussed by Mr. Holt. He pointed out that the home and schools are two important factors in development of children.

Visiting Rotarians at the meeting were Charles L. Pfeifer of Upper Sandusky and G. O. Brown of Fostoria. Guests included Col. W. M. Van Sickle of the Royal Air Force stationed at Brize, Norton, England, a brother of Robert H. Van Sickle of Marion. S. S. Miller of Chicago, Ill., Clark M. Fouts and Marshall Browne of Marion.

Student reporter from St. Mary High School was Don Wilhelm.

School Area Transferred To Union County District

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court today ordered the Madison County school board to transfer part of the Pike-Monroe local school district to the adjoining Union County school district in Union County.

The court granted a writ of mandamus requiring the transfer at the request of Lennie E. Boerger, Paul Overturf and Eugene Wilson. They filed for the writ as taxpayers and qualified electors of the Pike-Monroe district.

Edison Tri-Hi-Y Club Members Honor Fathers at Annual Party

Approximately 200 members of the Edison Junior High School Tri-Hi-Y Club and their guests attended the third annual "Dad-Daughter Date" event at the school Tuesday night for the largest such affair held by the girls. In addition, 20 mothers prepared and served the dinner.

Feature of the program was a panel discussion on home problems in which a group of the members and fathers appeared with the special guests, Judge Edward Ruzzo of the Marion County Juvenile Court, and Mrs. Doris Maxwell of the Family Service Agency.

"Hearts and Flowers" was the theme for the event. As the members and their "dates" entered the dining room, a large red heart arranged at the tip of the triangle formed by the tables gave the greeting of "Welcome Dads."

The Valentine idea was carried out in the program booklets, and a recording of the new popular song, "Oh Mein Papa," was background music for the dinner. Words of the new song with changes to put it in the present tense appeared in the booklets. The three buffet tables were arranged in the shape of a triangle which is the symbol of the Tri-Hi-Y. Prayer at the table was given by Alice Spurlock, the chaplain.

A large lighted candle and open Bible symbolized the "light of truth" as the focal point in the school auditorium, where the program was held. Group singing was led by Thena Utley, and Judy Dotson was accompanist. Welcome was spoken by Beverly Hudson, and response was by her father, Dale Hudson. The ninth grade Trojanettes "kick chorus" composed of Linda Price, Janet Cleveland, Judy Ann Steele, Billie Jo Cook, Mary Barkley, Judy Speck, Marlene Dennis, and Beverly Whittington, presented a dance number.

Sally Faust was toastmistress, and she and Beverly Whittington presented gifts to the oldest father of a daughter present, Jack Zeisler, 73, father of Mrs. M. A. Hendel, a Tri-Hi-Y advisor, to the youngest father, Ed Curren, 27, whose daughter is Linda Phelps, and the father of the most daughters, Lester Carey, 67. Mr. Carey has nine daughters, two of whom, Joyce and Nancy, are now attending Edison School, and he has one son.

A duet arrangement of "Oh Mein Papa" was sung by Linda Price and Thena Utley. Devotions on a theme of family relationships was by Alice Spurlock.

Moderator for the panel discussion was Sandra Jenkins, and others taking part were Sally Faust, Loretta McCartney, Carole Neimeister, Marjorie Mosely, Charles Jenkins, Don Neimeister, Walter Moore, Eldon Jones, Ivan Jordan, and H. F. McCartney, besides Judge Ruzzo and Mrs. Maxwell. Four problems discussed were the development of responsibility in daughters, recognition of them as young adults capable of making decisions and choices, development of a companionship between fathers and daughters, and allowances.

As a tribute to the fathers, Linda Thurston sang "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You." A vote of thanks was given the mothers for the dinner, and to close, friendship lines were formed while a group composed of Linda Price, Thena Utley, Linda Thurston, Brenda Geer, and Charlotte Huddle, sang the "Lord's Prayer."

Mothers serving on the kitchen and dining room committees included Mrs. Edwin Price, Mrs. Charles Jenkins, Mrs. Berkley Huddle, Mrs. Robert Porter, Mrs. Charles Myers, Mrs. Harry Speck, Mrs. R. H. Plantz, Mrs. Richard Faust, Mrs. Martin Beckel, Mrs. Phillip Rosskopf, Mrs. Jack Chevalier, Mrs. Leroy Frost, Mrs Tom Coon, Mrs. Evelyn Clay, Mrs. R. C. Greer, Mrs. Glen Christ, Mrs. Herman Rech, Mrs. Sarah Frazier, and Mrs. L. C. Massie.

Block of Dimes Adds $402 to Bucyrus Fund

BUCYRUS — A "Block of Dimes" project sponsored over the weekend by the Bucyrus Moose Lodge brought in $402 to the March of Dimes polio fund campaign, Edward Schrier, city chairman for the campaign, announced today.

Lodge members painted a white line on a sidewalk the entire length of a downtown block and urged passing shoppers to place dimes on the line. The line was nearly covered Saturday night. The campaign also has received a $50 contribution from F. M. Glosser, Bucyrus, who had been helped by the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation last summer when his son was stricken with the disease.

Incomplete reports from a Mothers March on Polio porchlight campaign conducted last Thursday night under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ralph White showed a collection of $1,118.

CARRIER HIBERNATES

QUONSET POINT, R. I. (UP)—One of the world's smallest aircraft carriers has been put in mothballs for the winter. The USS Quonset Point — a 44-foot scaled model of the famous USS Essex — was mothballed and stored in a base warehouse until spring when it will be used again for exhibitions.

WORLD'S BIGGEST HEART, 28 feet long, 17½ high and 15,000 times life size, is shown on display at Franklin institute, Philadelphia. The giant model, which does everything but pump blood, is designed to familiarize visitors with heart structure and workings.

Amendment

the White House has raised objections.

Depend on Republicans

This left Knowland and his aides dependent on the Senate's 47 Republicans—and only a segment of them if Bricker does not go along—to support proposed constitutional changes to which Eisenhower would agree.

The lineup was such that George seemed more likely to have his way than Knowland. But also, if the existing three-or four-way Senate split continued, there was a distinct possibility that no proposed amendment could muster the two-thirds majority required.

Bricker's original proposal seemed virtually dead. Using it as a basis for revision, the four GOP leaders moved to revise it to amend Section 6 of the Constitution to provide that "no treaty made after the establishment of this Constitution shall be the supreme law of the land unless made in pursuance of this Constitution."

This provision, which would make past and future treaties subject to court review, had White House clearance.

Agree on Another Proposal

Administration approval was also behind the plan to alter another section of the Bricker proposal to say that "a provision of a treaty or other international agreement which conflicts with this Constitution shall not be of any force or effect." This was the identical language used by George in a section of his substitute.

Ferguson said a motion would be made to strike out of Bricker's version a clause to which Eisenhower objected most vigorously. It says "a treaty shall become effective as internal law in the United States only through legislation which would be valid in absence of treaty."

Eisenhower has said this language, known as the "which clause," would subject some treaties to veto by the states—a contention Bricker disputes.

George's Proposal

George and other Democrats—as well as Bricker—had agreed to these three actions in compromise efforts. But George broke away when the GOP leaders left out of their series of amendments his section reading:

"An international agreement other than a treaty shall become effective as internal law in the United States only by an act of the Congress."

George said this would give Congress a look at all international agreements, many of which he said are kept secret even from foreign relations committee members. Such executive agreements, unlike formal treaties, are not subject to ratification by the Senate.

George discounted administration objections that this section would interfere with the President's war powers and the right to give diplomatic recognition to other countries. George said those rights were spelled out elsewhere in the Constitution.

Reject Further Negotiation

The Georgia senator, backed by his own party policy committee, turned thumbs down on any further negotiations toward a bipartisan agreement.

"There is no hope for any compromise now," he said. "We just have to fight this matter out on the floor. The negotiations are over."

One influential Democrat, who didn't want to be quoted by name, said his party members had stipulated that any compromise they supported must be backed by Eisenhower in a letter.

He said Republican leaders had voiced confidence they could produce such a letter, but that the Democrats broke off negotiations when it was not forthcoming after several White House meetings.

From Democrats who have opposed any amendment to the Constitution on the issue came indications they will back George's proposal over those of the Republican leadership.

One of these Democrats, Sen. Humphrey of Minnesota, said he probably will vote for the George substitute. But he indicated that, if it is adopted, he probably will vote against final passage.

Others Share His View

Humphrey's views apparently were shared by 15 or more senators who say there is no need for any amendment. Their votes will count heavily, because two-thirds of those participating must approve any constitutional amendment. The House must then pass it by a like majority and, before it becomes a part of the Constitution, 36 of the 48 states must approve.

Sen. Anderson (D-NM) said he believes most of the Democrats will follow George's lead.

Sen Fulbright (D-Ark) told the Senate yesterday supporters of the Bricker amendment were engaging in "the unbelievable spectacle" of attempting to "hamstring" the President's conduct of foreign relations.

even been touched yet, so there was no way of knowing if the Kremlin had a veto ready or not for the long-delayed Austrian treaty.

Western diplomats commented that Molotov had forged a weapon here he might not have counted on. The Russian's pressure tactics have produced a high degree of solidarity among the Allied Powers. His repeated efforts to demonstrate friendship for the French and drive a wedge have been fruitless. Dulles and other American diplomats apparently were greatly pleased with the leading role Bidault has played as part of a determined Western team.

Molotov's repeated attack on the Western alliance, his blasts at the European Defense Community, and his charge that the West has aggressive designs in its plans for future Germany have all compelled the Western three to present a solid front at all times.

There was considerable thought that this alone would be of great influence in getting final—and particularly French—acceptance of the EDC plan for a rearmed Germany inside the European community framework.

Filibuster Plan

American authorities concluded that Molotov is running some kind of filibuster on the German unity question by rehashing threadbare Russian plans rejected time after time in the past.

Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault all took lusty swings yesterday at the Russian proposals, which would set up a unified Germany virtually defenseless on the Red army's doorstep and kill Western aims to arm Germans with Frenchmen and others in a unified European defense force.

Bidault brushed aside blandishments by Molotov to charm France into the Eastern camp, analyzed the Russian proposals point by point and remarked coldly:

"In my opinion the exchanges of views on the question of a peace treaty are in danger of becoming sterile. Perhaps we can still examine one another's intentions. But up to now it is clear such an exchange of views is teaching nobody anything."

Assures East Germans

While Molotov failed to split the Western Big Three, he has given a certain amount of comfort to Communist leaders of the East German government, still shaken by the popular uprising of last June 17. He assured his Red disciples in East Germany he won't sell them down the river—even to relax tension with the West.

"By joining the European Defense Community," he said, "West Germany will openly take the path of resurgence of German militarism.

"Everybody knows the peace-loving (East) German Democratic Republic will not follow that path."

Then came the clincher:

"Thus implementation of the Bonn and Paris agreements (the Allied-West German Peace Contract and the EDC Treaty) places insurmountable obstacles in the way of Germany's unification and, for a certain period of time, makes the re-establishment of the unity of the German state impossible."

The West has known from the beginning that Molotov never would accept a free election approach, their No. 1 point, for uniting Germany. It would spell quick destruction to Russian control of East Germany and might cup up the whole network of satellite East European states.

Guatemala Expels Two U.S. Newsmen

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Guatemala's leftist government appeared today to have launched a major crackdown on the press. It expelled two U.S. correspondents, and Communist supporters of President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman bitterly attacked the nation's independent press.

The ousted newsmen were Sidney Gruson, New York Times correspondent for Mexico and Central America, and Marshall F. Bannell of the National Broadcasting Co. Both were accused of trying to discredit the Guatemalan government. Security police hustled both to the airport in Guatemala City yesterday.

Crestline Council Discusses Traffic

CRESTLINE — Crestline Automobile Club presented maps at the Monday night meeting of Crestline Council, pointing out various city streets which should be made through-streets and points where traffic signs should be erected.

The police committee was authorized to check the matter and report at the next meeting.

A resolution declaring it necessary to construct a sewer on Livingston St. with service from S. Wiley St. to Colby Road was passed. Another resolution was passed, renewing fire contracts with Jefferson, Sandusky, Jackson and North Robinson Townships.

Mayor Nelson Lee reported $691.90 in fines for the month of January.

Man Enters Not Guilty Plea to Resisting Arrest

Lawrence V. Davis, 44, of 344 N. State St. pleaded not guilty in Municipal Court today to a charge of resisting arrest. He posted a $50 bond for his appearance for a trial Monday. He pleaded guilty to an intoxication charge but no disposition will be made pending outcome of the trial. He was arrested by police on N. State St. last night.

Police Department, Jail Toured by Kindergarten

Wide eyed and curious some 28 pre-school age children from the Wee People cooperative kindergarten on W. Center St. paid a visit to the Marion police department and city jail this morning.

Shown through the police record bureau, the radio dispatcher's office and the jail, the children — ranging from four to five years-old—were most impressed by the jail and Patrolman D. L. Everly's uniform, gun, bullets, and badge.

While looking over the jail, one of the smaller boys in the group piped up with "Boy, I don't want to ever be in there."

Accompanying the children on the tour were instructors Mrs. Henry Hubbard of 325 Franklin Ave. and Mrs. Marshall Browne of 244 S. Greenwood St. Mrs. Hubbard said the group was recently taken on a tour of the Central fire station.

Two Motorists Fined

Two drivers arrested on traffic charges by city police pleaded guilty in Marion Municipal Court today and each was fined $15 and costs.

William A. Anderson, 28, of 156 Jefferson St. was charged with operating on a temporary driver's permit unaccompanied by a licensed driver and Royal R. Bosh, 39, of 254 Chicago Ave. with speeding.

One Accident Reported

One minor traffic accident was reported today by city police. The state highway patrol and Marion County sheriff's office reported no mishaps on county highways.

In the city, cars driven by Dan Howell, 48, of 1006 W. Center St. and Lawrence L. Reeves, 26, of Columbus were involved in a mishap in front of Howell's residence at 2:02 p.m. Tuesday.

'Free Land' in Michigan At Bottom of 2 Lakes

ADRIAN, Mich. (UP) — The county clerk here discovered recenly that free land which the bureau of land management said was available, really doesn't exist —at least not visibly.

R. B. King was swamped for months with request for information on the free land. Finally he investigated.

He wrote to the federal agency in Washington and informed them that the land listed was in Lenawee County and was not owned by anyone. However, "It's covered by water and located at the bottom of Devil's and Round Lakes," he wrote.

Apparently no eyewitness survey ever was made of the land, carried on the agency's records as being vacant, since early settlers took up the surrounding land and the federal goverment therefore carried it as vacant, King said.

quoted. The newspaper insisted its story was correct.

The committee then recalled Beeson for questioning and he said his original denial grew out of confusion between the story in question and an earlier one. He termed it an "honest mistake."

Sen. Murray (D-Mont) put into the hearing record a press release from the company which spoke of Beeson's "leave of absence" for a year to take the NLRB job. Beeson said he had never seen the release.

He said he resigned orally to the firm's board of directors but has not put it in writing.

On the pension question, he said he thought the company could continue his rights to full benefits by extending his leave of absence. He estimated that the company has paid about $7,200 toward his pension during his seven years of service. He said he, too, has contributed to the fund.

Stands To Lose Money

He said it is his understanding that an employe who quits before finishing 10 years service loses the company portion of the fund, although the employe can get back his own contributions. This, Beeson said, he has not done.

However, he said he thought an employe who is on "some kind of leave of absence" would retain his pension rights.

Chairman H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) put into the record a telegram from Davies stating that Beeson had "severed all connections with the company." Davies said Beeson had "no written, oral or implied agreement" to get his old job back, but the company president said it is the firm's "custom" to consider all employes who take government jobs as "on leave of absence."

The American source said Rastovorov's pending defection probably was no surprise to the American officials.

American sources know intimate details of Rastovorov's background.

The former Red agent was born near the northeastern boundary of the Ukraine.

Ukrainia for centuries had a strong anti-Russian independence movement that has survived more than 30 years of Red rule. During the last war, many Ukrainians welcomed the German invaders and even fought in German ranks.

Military sources said Rastovorov is 35 years old—born one year after the Russian Revolution—and is 5 feet 10. He weighs 173 pounds, and has typical Slav blonde hair and blue-gray eyes.

He was popular at the swank Tokyo Tennis Club, frequented by influential American and Japanese figures.

Union Leaders

By George Sokolsky

Back in the early days of the New Deal, it made sense to quarrel over the nature and purpose of labor unions. I once wrote a book on the subject, which is now out of print, but which warned of the dangers of new trends in trade unionism.

SOKOLSKY

In 1954, the labor unions are in the United States to stay and a system of operations has been established which has the sanction of congressional action and judicial decision. It serves no valid purpose to oppose trade unionism per se, although it is possible to say that those who opposed Prohibition kept up their opposition until a constitutional amendment was passed abolishing that abomination.

It is not likely that any opposition to labor unions will lead to a change in the social institutions arising from their existence. American industry has adjusted to the necessity of some form of collective bargaining under the legal arrangements first stipulated in the Wagner law and now in the Taft-Hartley law.

THE PROPOSED revision of the Taft-Hartley law, as advocated by President Eisenhower, in no manner alters the relationship between management and the unions.

It is probably that management desires no radical alteration in those relationships, as was evident in a series of private conferences last spring and summer between lawyers representing industry and the unions.

In fact, most industries, either separately or in their trade associations, have established permanent labor law departments as a result of the vast changes in management-union problems which have emerged and taken form since 1935.

Whether a union belongs to the AF of L, the CIO to John L. Lewis's separate enterprise or to an independent union, it is being managed by professionals whose principal business is to operate labor unions.

THESE PROFESSIONALS may be divided into four categories:

1. Careerists.
2. The old school of Social Democrats.
3. Racketeers.
4. Communists.

The careerists are professionals who operate unions as a way of life and are concerned with the success of their unions. Such men as John L. Lewis and George Meany represent this type of labor leader and generally serve their unions well. They are usually good citizens and are honest as most men are in a competitive work.

They subordinate all questions to the interests of their particular union. More and more unions are falling into the hands of these careerists and on the whole, this is as it should be.

The old line Social Democrats are a small but powerful remnant of pre-Wagner law trade unionism, when the struggle between trade unions and management was generally difficult, and the unions not very successful.

These leaders are ideologically socialists, but they are anti-Communists. The battle between socialists and Communists is often more violent than most of us realize. It has been continuous since 1903 at London, when the Russian Social Democratic party split between Bolsheviks and Mensheviks. The hatred of one group for the other is intense.

Among the leaders of the Social Democrats are David Dubinsky and Walter Reuther and their political weapon is the Americans for Democratic Action (ADA).

They differ from the non-political careerists in that their trade unionism is definitely based on political concepts and they relate themselves internationally to similar labor movements in other countries, as for example, the British Labor party.

They spend huge sums of money fighting Communism not only in the United States but in foreign countries. For instance, through the influence of David Dubinsky, Jay Lovestone, a former Communist, and Irving Brown, a socialist, they support and, in a measure, direct anti-Communist activities in European countries.

THE RACKETEERS and Communists in trade unionism are, of course, obvious and obnoxious. Efforts to reduce the influence of these two groups have not been altogether successful, the best example of the racketeers being the Longshoremen's Union in New York and the best example of a Communist-dominated union being the UE (United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America).

It must be said that the law, politicians, and management are not guiltless in the strength of both the racketeers and the Communists and the sooner the racketeers and Communists are eliminated from American trade unionism, the stronger and more respected all unions will be.

This is written in anticipation of further discussion of this subject whenever the new labor law will be before Congress for consideration.

Blood Donors Top Bucyrus Goal for 6th Straight Time

BUCYRUS — For the sixth consecutive time, Bucyrus area blood donors exceeded the goal of 150 pints at the first 1954 visit of the Columbus Red Cross bloodmobile here Monday.

Donations totaled 158 pints. In five visits during 1953, a total of 832 pints was contributed.

The visit was sponsored by the Swan Rubber Co., the first time that a local industry has undertaken sponsorship of the program, Red Cross officials pointed out. Numerous Swan employes were first-time donors during the day.

The leading repeat donor was Victor Shultz, an employe of the Ohio Locomotive Crane Co. A World War II veteran, Shultz donated his 33rd pint. Cleo Burk made his 20th donation, John R. Savage, 19, Richard Sprow Sr., and George Sukup, 18, Carl Heil, Clinton Luke, Miss Esther Wagner and Mrs. Mable Koepfer, 17, Norman Kisor and Corliss Rutter, 16. Gallon pins were presented to Mrs. Ferris Mollencopf, Frederick Moes and Carl Raney.

GLASS STRIKE ENDS

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A four-month-old wage strike of CIO Federation of Glass, Ceramic and Silica Sand Workers was to end this morning at the Shawnee pottery plant here. The union ordered its men back to work because of "economic reasons." Present wage scales were not disclosed.

Why Silence?

By Victor Riesel

Twenty-one tragic ex-GIs have just hit the road traveled by so many brainwashed Communists before them—the path which leads to the MVD's slave labor camps deep inside Russia. The pattern is always the same for the outsiders. First the propaganda road show. Then silence. Then years later from inside Russia comes word that the "foreign" Communists are but living skeletons in some prison.

RIESEL

They trudge the road traversed before them by eager-eyed anarchists, Spanish revolutionists, German underground fighters and many an intellectual who should have known better, while another ex-American POW who knows just how it all started lives comfortably in the U.S.

This man now enjoying our freedoms and fully eligible for GI rights and money benefits, actually knew two of these turn-coat ex-American soldiers.

HIS NAME is Paul Schnur, Jr. He collaborated wih ex-Sgt. Rufus E. Douglas of San Angelo, Tex., and ex-Cpl. Lowell D. Skinner of Akron, O., inthe notorious Soviet POW camp No. 5 in North Korea. It was Schnur, as a POW along with these two, who unloosed the first blast of Soviet - Chinese "peace" line propaganda in the U.S.

Schnur, Jr., and his father (who once campaigned for release of the atomic spies) piped this propaganda into San Francisco through the newspaper of Harry Bridges' Longshoremen's Union after Schnur, Jr., had mailed the propaganda in from Communist territory.

To this day neither Schnur, Jr., nor his father have been called by any authority to tell what they know about the brainwashing mechanism which ensnared 21 American kids. Nor has young Schnur spoken up voluntarily.

Why hasn't he been called? Why is he silent? Isn't the image of 21 buddies hitting the slave camp road enough to jar him?

PRESIDENT Eisenhower is personally cracking the supposedly solid anti-Republican labor front!

Recently he had Dick Gray, head of the powerful AFL construction trades, in to dinner. The other day Ike spent some time with the cap-wearing, open-collared Harry Lundberg, chief of the AFL's sailors union of the Pacific—to whom Ike once offered a place in the cabinet.

Actually stumping around the country for the President now is Guy Brown, leader of the locomotive engineers. He, too, visited with the President not too long ago. By campaign time, there will be a powerful pro-Eisenhower labor bloc. And don't count out Dave Beck's teamsters union. Beck is now much closer to the President than is generally realized.

Jimmy Petrillo has taken on the U.S. Air Force—he won without a shot being fired. The peppery little AFL Musicians chief arrived recently in Miami Beach for the AFL high council meeting, only to learn that the Air Force was about to jet propel a band from a Georgia airfield to the Miami resort so it could play—for free—outside three theaters at which Hollywood's new movie, "The Glenn Miller Story," was to premiere.

THIS FILM honors the Air Force and the late band leader, who was in the service when he was killed. Hero of the film is Jimmy Stewart, who made colonel among the skyboys.

In the words of my literary "cousin", Bill Baggs, the Will Rogers of Miami, Petrillo, the little "Big Toot" sounded off. Petrillo didn't think a military band should be moved across the south when a local band could make music at union rates. This word went from Petrillo to the Defense Department to Georgia. The Air Force Band didn't move. Jimmy's paid civilian musicians took over. . .

Meanwhile, the AFL's executive council chiefs in Miami Beach have had contact with still another cabinet post—Jim Mitchell's department. So, barring any emergencies, the secretary of labor will fly to Florida to talk with the AFL's leaders, explain the President's attitude on new labor laws and report what is being done to head off new unemployment.

BIG NEWS out of the AFL council, which should cheer the hearts of thousands of businessmen, is that AFL prexy George Meany has a plan to end those costly jurisdictional disputes in which two unions, fighting for the right to put their members on certain jobs, tie up work.

For example, one of the current disputes is Dave Beck's battle with one electricians' and carpenters' unions whose members drive trucks.

Beck wants these men in his teamsters union. Now Meany will offer a formula for what, in effect, will be a labor court inside labor, with the "judges" chosen by the unions themselves—who will be found by all decisions. . .

THE BRAZILIAN Coffee institue, apparently now convinced that the American proletariat is slightly aroused over $1.20-a-pound coffee, has invited AFL leader George Meany and CIO chief Walter Reuther to fly down to Rio to survey the coffee situation. Somebody should have told the Brazilians that Reuther takes milk, himself. Now, if his 5,000,000 CIO followers would also abstain for a month and drink his drink, we'd settle both the coffee and American farm problem at one stroke.

For two and a half hours in Detroit last Monday, Reuther conferred with his Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Union chiefs on the establishment of a national committee to organize this section of the "white collar class" across country. . .

The Lonely Age

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—I have a friend who thinks it is more comfortable to be 50 than it is to be 35, and never wants to be 65.

He says that at 35 his biggest worry was how far he would get in the world by the time he was 50, but today his biggest worry is what in the world he will do when he faces retirement 15 years from now.

HAL BOYLE

Here is how one man feels about life at 50, looking both backward and forward:

"Thirty-five is a man's lonesomest age," he said. "He is in competition with a lot of other men for the boss's favor. His children are at the age when they need him most, he needs them most, but has the least time to devote to them.

"HE STILL THINKS of his wife as a girl, but won't drop his business cares to treat her as the girl she was 15 years before, when he married her.

"At 35 a man worries about money, whether he has enough insurance, keeping up with the Joneses. He has to plan for prom dresses for his girls, and pocket money for the boys when they get ready to spark.

"When they do start sparking, he doesn't trust his wife to exercise proper supervision over the beaux and girls they pick or the hours they keep. But he isn't around enough himself to have much to do with it either.

"AT 35 HE HARDLY does more at home than eat and sleep, and at the office he isn't sure who are his friends, or if he has any.

"As the years go along, if he is lucky, he does pretty well both at home and at the office. He gets a raise now and then—but never quite the recognition he wanted—and the kids at least tolerate the advice he gives them and he hopes is sound.

"But all of a sudden he is 50. The kids are away at school or married and he realizes that he will now never have the time for comradeship with them he always thought he would work around to—if he weren't just so busy.

"All at once the kids are gone from home entirely. He and his wife, married for 30 years, are back where they started—in some ways—but not quite.

"THE JOB AT the office still has to be done, but he knows he has gone just about as far as he's going to go there. If he is properly philosophical, that's one load off his mind. He isn't in competition with anybody in his own mind, and therefore if anybody in the office pays him a compliment, he can believe they are sincere.

"He feels he can speak his mind to the boss frankly without worrying about the consequences to his future, because the boss knows he doesn't have any more axes to grind.

"When he comes home there is a lonesome moment at the door. But he gets used to missing the kids. He grows closer to his wife, who by now certainly is not the same girl he married. But they can be more relaxed together than at 35, when they had to set an example for the kids. They can act more like kids themselves.

THEY CAN EAT when they feel like it and sleep when they feel like it without keeping to a 'health schedule' for the kids they read in a book. For the first time in their married lives they can live as they want to, but of course they don't have the money they dreamed they would have at 50.

"They are at peace with the world.

"But soon they realize that in a few years the boss is going to say, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Here is a gold watch and a small pension. Go and enjoy yourself for the rest of your life.'

"And the worries begin all over again. You wonder what there will be left to enjoy at 65. The kids will be gone, the job gone, and not enough income to do for your wife all the things you wanted to do when you started the road together.

"I don't want to be 35 again. I never want to be 65. Middle age is the best age."

Bricker Amendment Dispute

Ike Fights To Keep Balance of Power

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower is the living symbol and one of three custodians of a basic principle laid down by the writers of the Constitution 165 years ago the separation and balance of powers between the President, Congress and the courts

Presidents—in their traditional opposition to congressional encroachment upon the powers given them, explicitly or implicitly, in the Constitution—have had wide latitude in handling foreign affairs

Power Not Absolute

The power is not absolute thanks to the constitutional checks and balances A president cannot make a treaty with a foreign government unless two thirds of the Senate approves.

But a president can make an agreement with a foreign government It may have the effect of a treaty but, being an executive agreement, doesn't need Senate approval

If money is needed to carry out such an agreement, Congress could effectively veto it by refusing the money, since Congress controls spending In other agreements a president carries out laws laid down by Congress

Eisenhower has insisted he must have traditional freedom in this field of foreign affairs.

Bricker's Views

But Sen Bricker (R-Ohio) and others who share his views looked with misgiving upon such presidential latitude and reasoned this way

Someday some President might get this country into trouble by deliberately making an agreement —instead of a treaty which would have to be examined by the Senate —with the result that certain citizens' rights would be lost.

Further the Bricker group argued, even the Senate might someday approve a treaty which might mean a loss of some states' or citizens' rights

Therefore, Bricker proposed a constitutional amendment that would specifically give the Senate the right to regulate all executive agreements It would also provide that treaties dealing with matters the Constitution reserves to the states could be valid as domestic law only if the individual states passed laws in keeping with the treaties.

Ike's Opposition

Eisenhower said this would hamstring any President in handling foreign affairs In fact he said, the whole government would be handcuffed

Bricker's supporters began to melt away and his proposal is now as good as dead—as he offered it But there remains in the Senate strong sentiment that a constitutional change is needed

No one argues there is any imminent catastrophe requiring immediate action. The Senate, if it wished, could send the whole problem back to its Judiciary Committee for more study. It may wind up doing that

But then Sen George (D-Ga) backed by a big bloc of Democrats, came up with a proposal of his own which, while not as stiff as Bricker's, was also turned down by Eisenhower.

And Sen Knowland of California, Republican Senate leader, produced a compromise proposal The study given George's and Knowland's suggestions couldn't compare with that given Bricker's, although it might seem any constitutional change as this should require plenty.

Full Senate Treatment

Bricker's proposal had been given the full Senate treatment since he first made it in 1951 The Senate Judiciary Committee considered it in 1952

In 1953 the same committee—composed of eight Republicans and seven Democrats—held exhaustive hearings on it from February to March

A long stream of witnesses, including constitutional lawyers and government officials, explained their reasons for being for or against it Then the committee weighed the issues from April till June before coming up with the final version—now known as the Bricker amendment The committee, in doing this, had the help of its staff of lawyers

The George and Knowland proposals, based generally on the same arguments, were the products of the past few days

BERLIN GOOD OMEN. Pilot Escapes, But His Plane Kills Two Men

GRAND PRAIRIE Tex (AP) — A Texas Air National Guard pilot set his ejector seat into action and threw himself clear of the flaming crash here yesterday of his F80 Shooting Star jet.

The pilot, Capt James C Smith, 31, of nearby Dallas, was not believed seriously injured but two workers in the boat factory storage yard where the plane fell were killed and four others injured

Eyewitnesses said Smith's ejector seat catapulted him away from the crash almost at the moment of impact.

The plane which faltered on takeoff from Hensley Field across a heavily traveled Dallas - Fort Worth highway from the boat factory, narrowly missed a building in which 100 men were working

Workers killed were George Lee Tucker, 54, Arlington, Tex, and William H Slagle, 51, Trenton, Tex

Waterproofing System Touted

One Can Carry Milk In Bag, Russians Say

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

MOSCOW (AP)—The Russians have come up with a sure-fire waterproofing system they call "hydrofobization." It's so good, they say, it'll even keep tissue paper dry in a rainstorm and permit you to carry a quart of loose milk home in a paper bag.

The discovery is reported in the newspaper Leningrad Pravda. Scientists at Leningrad University are credited with developing the process.

No details are given except to say the "chemicals used are of a silicious organic character which are cheap and can be produced in large quantities."

The paper claims this is an entirely new waterproofing method. It says that where rubber "mechanically keeps water out, hydrofobization prevents the molecular ties between water and fabric and treated fabric therefore repels water."

This means you could throw your raincoat and rubbers away if you had a suit and shoes treated with the stuff. Paper cups no longer will have to be waxed, water colors can be washed after treatment, and "even the cheapest cottons will repel water as if they were made of rubber," the newspaper says.

Drunken Driver Picks Bad Place To Park Car

CENTRALIA, Ill. (AP)—A policeman noticed a motorist was having trouble parking his car in front of the Centralia police station and stepped out to help him.

After the cop helped Mark Davis park his car he arrested him on charges of drunken driving and illegal transportation of liquor. Another charge was placed against Davis when he couldn't produce a driver's license. He pleaded guilty to all three charges and was fined a total of $310.

'Y' Membership Jumps After Move to New Building

Increases 1,150 in Three Months; Enrollment Now Totals 1,950

By ROBERT LISTON

YMCA membership has skyrocketed since the new building on Church St. was opened a little over three months ago.

Marvin J. Ludwig, YMCA youth secretary, revealed a membership of approximately 1,950 as compared with about 800 in the old building.

THE BIGGEST JUMP has been in youth membership. It stands now at 1,400, compared to 700 in the old building. There are over 550 adult members in the new "Y". There were but 150 in the old. Ludwig stated there are 90 family memberships where there were none before.

"Credit for this increased membership belongs solely to the new building. Only one person has been added to the YMCA staff. It's just that we are able to accommodate so many more so much better with our increased facilities," Ludwig stated.

"Just the act of moving into the new building increased membership because of the resultant publicity. And this building radiates a warmth and hominess that the old one never had. Children enjoy being here.

"AND OF COURSE we have room. Room to conduct several different types of activities without conflict or interference. We can have square dancing in the basement, swimming, physical education in both gymnasiums, club meetings, craft hobbies and recreation in the game room all at the same time, and accommodate more people in each of those activities," Ludwig said.

The youth secretary reported the new 75 feet by 25 feet swimming pool and the larger gym space, together with adequate locker and shower rooms, are probably the biggest assets of the new building. It is possible, also, to have as many as 40 in a craft study class, whereas the old structure did not have a single room specifically designed as a craft shop.

Ludwig explained how the new "Y" building, with the same small staff, can serve such an increased membership.

"The answer lies in control. This building has been designed so that one person, say behind that information desk, can observe the activities of the children in several rooms. And, too, we have additional volunteers, 125 active youth leaders, who take pride in this building and believe it is a challenge to do better work.

"I hope the people of this community take pride in it, too," he said.

"THIS BUILDING has enabled us to separate youths and adults. Each can feel it belongs to them, avoid the natural tensions that occur when they try to do their separate activities in the same area. In other words, the two groups do not cross paths here as they did in the old structure."

Ludwig's remarks were summed up when he said, "Our membership has increased because of our ability to accommodate more and more young people and adults. You might say this is an ability which the community has given itself."

Membership in the "Y" is very easy. A young boy or girl comes in, says, "I want to join." He fills out an application card, is introduced to others in his own age group, ...d is taken on a tour of the areas in the building of greatest interest to him. Even before the tour is completed, he is in the full swing of "Y" activites.

Once a month, membership induction services are held to which his parents are invited. He is reinformed of the goals and principles of the Young Men's Christian Association, and he receives his membership card.

THE YMCA NEOPHYTE cannot help but be impressed by the candlelight induction service. These words are spoken, words which every parent wants his boy or girl to live by: "As I light these candles, the light which they radiate represents the light of each of us. Individually we do not have too much to offer, but as we join together with other boys as symbolized by the lighting of these candles, we share what we have with others and by so doing benefit from it and brighten the lives of others. . . .It is the purpose of the Young Men's Christian Association to help you develop a strong body, an alert mind, a reverence for God, and a respect for boys of all races, creeds and color, and a willingness to be of service to others at all times."

A grade school youth is asked to pay a fee of $7.50, and a junior or senior high school student $10. But, as Ludwig stated, "No youth is challenged for his ability to pay or turned away for lack of money." Various Marion groups and individuals sponsor those whose financial situation prevents their paying their own fee.

EXPLAINING YMCA RULES to two new members is Marvin J. Ludwig, youth secretary. The boys are Jack (standing) and Gail Moore, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Moore, 933 Davids St. Jack, 12, and Gail, 10, are students at Oakland School.

Ozark Folk Serve Sassafras Tea as Coffee Substitute

VAN BUREN, Mo. (AP) — When folks in this Ozark region talk about the rising price of coffee they have sassafras tea on their minds.

Some think there might be a market for the sassafras tree roots from which the tea is brewed. The supply, they said, is unlimited.

At W. L. Martin's El Leon Cafe you can have a cup of the tea for 4 cents. Coffee is 10 cents a cup. Business is great, says Martin.

State Rep. W. T. Bollinger Jr. said coffee at 10 cents a cup and $1.10 a pound "is a serious matter in Carter County. There isn't a whole lot of money here, but we sure have plenty of sassafras. Plenty of people here would dig up the roots at 5 cents a pound."

Anniversary Special

CLEVELAND (AP)—In honor of its 100th anniversary celebration, the YMCA will award free memberships to all male babies born in Cuyahoga County between noon and midnight today.

The memberships will start when the children reach 9 and continue until they are 19.

Women Pledge To Shun Coffee Until Price Dips

NAPA, Calif. (AP)—The Napa Business and Professional Women's Club, 35 strong, solemnly pledged not to buy, serve or drink coffee again "until the price comes down."

By unanimous consent, however, the ladies voted a six-hour delay on their pledge when they were informed coffee had already been ordered for the evening's festivities.

County Farmer Cuts Costs With Mechanization

Loudenslager Uses Many Devices To Save Labor

Mechanization of feeding methods for cattle has been devised by Forest Loudenslager, Marion County farmer, to cut costs and save time

Latest addition to his labor-saving devices is a special truck which, by means of two conveyors, automatically pours feed from the bed of the vehicle into the cattle feeders

With 350 head of feeder cattle on the farm, composed mainly of Black Angus and Herefords, feeding by hand would be a long process

LOUDENSLAGER BEGAN his work-saving process in August 1951 with the erection of a completely mechanized granary

All processes in the granary are mechanically performed Conveyor belts take corn and grain as they are dumped from a truck to the top of the barn for storage

Huge bins contain space for keeping 11 500 bushels of corn, in addition to 11 000 bushels of grain By removing slats, turning on electric motors, and swinging a metal chute, the process can be alternated from one of storing the corn to one of grinding and mixing it for feed

AFTER FEED is mixed, it drops through a chute into the recently-completed carrier truck for distribution to the cattle

Loudenslager estimates the savings in time and effort of his devices are well worth the price and labor they required The processes in the granary and truck save him and his two sons, Don, 20, and Roy, 18, four shoveling operations, and about one-half the time normally required to complete the chore of feeding the cattle

Storgage space is so great in the Loudenslager granary that he estimates a full bin of corn would last his cattle almost a complete year However, he keeps the storage space filled the year around.

THE PROCESS he follows in storing and using grain is this corn is removed from its storage crib in the fields into a dump truck by means of an automatic loader. It is then brought to the granary and dumped into a hole in the floor where a conveyor belt moves it to an elevator for lifting to the top of the barn

Another conveyor belt at the top carries the corn along the top of the granary until it strikes a wooden slat removed from the side of the belt channel It is then forced out the side and into the storage bin.

Each morning, a wooden slat is removed from the bottom of one of the bins and a conveyor belt started This takes corn to the elevator where it is again raised to the top of the building.

BY MOVING the metal chute at the top of the elevator, the corn is dumped into a vertical burr mill where it is ground and mixed with a special supplement. The finished product drops through a chute into the new truck.

As soon as the truck is filled, it is driven to the cattle feeders and the last step takes place With one chain belt moving sideways, and the other belt moving toward the front of the truck, the feed is dumped into containers where the cattle eat.

Silage is moved from a large pit silo to the feeding area in a similar manner

LOUDENSLAGER designed both the granary and the truck by himself, and did most of the labor He hired one carpenter for help in building the barn, and had special contractors do such work as putting in sheeting, roofing and electrical connections.

About 115 cubic yards of concrete went into the foundation of the building His granary is different from many, not only because of its high degree of mechanization, but also because of the rounded cupola rising above the roof.

The truck took several weeks to build, After purchasing a snub nosed cab, Loudenslager acquired a flat rear bed, and installed the special mechanism which unloads the feed

About 100 bushels of feed can be carried around the farm in the new vehicle Special gears power take-offs, and transmissions provide the power for the conveyor system In installing the mechanism Loudenslager put in a front end transmission, providing the truck with four-wheel drive

PLANS AND DETAILS were worked out by Loudenslager himself

Ten electric motors have been installed in the granary to provide power for operation of equipment Two huge fans provide air for drying the stored grains.

All this makes the farm highly dependent on electricity. To insure against long disruptions of power, a combination generator was recently purchased and became the latest addition to the mechanical equipment

Designed so it may be connected to a power take-off on a tractor it will supply either direct current for use as an arc welder or alternating current at both 110 or 220 volts for other power needs

Mounted on rubber-tired wheels, it may be towed anywhere it is needed on the farm A simple adjustment quickly changes the output to any one of the three types of electrical current

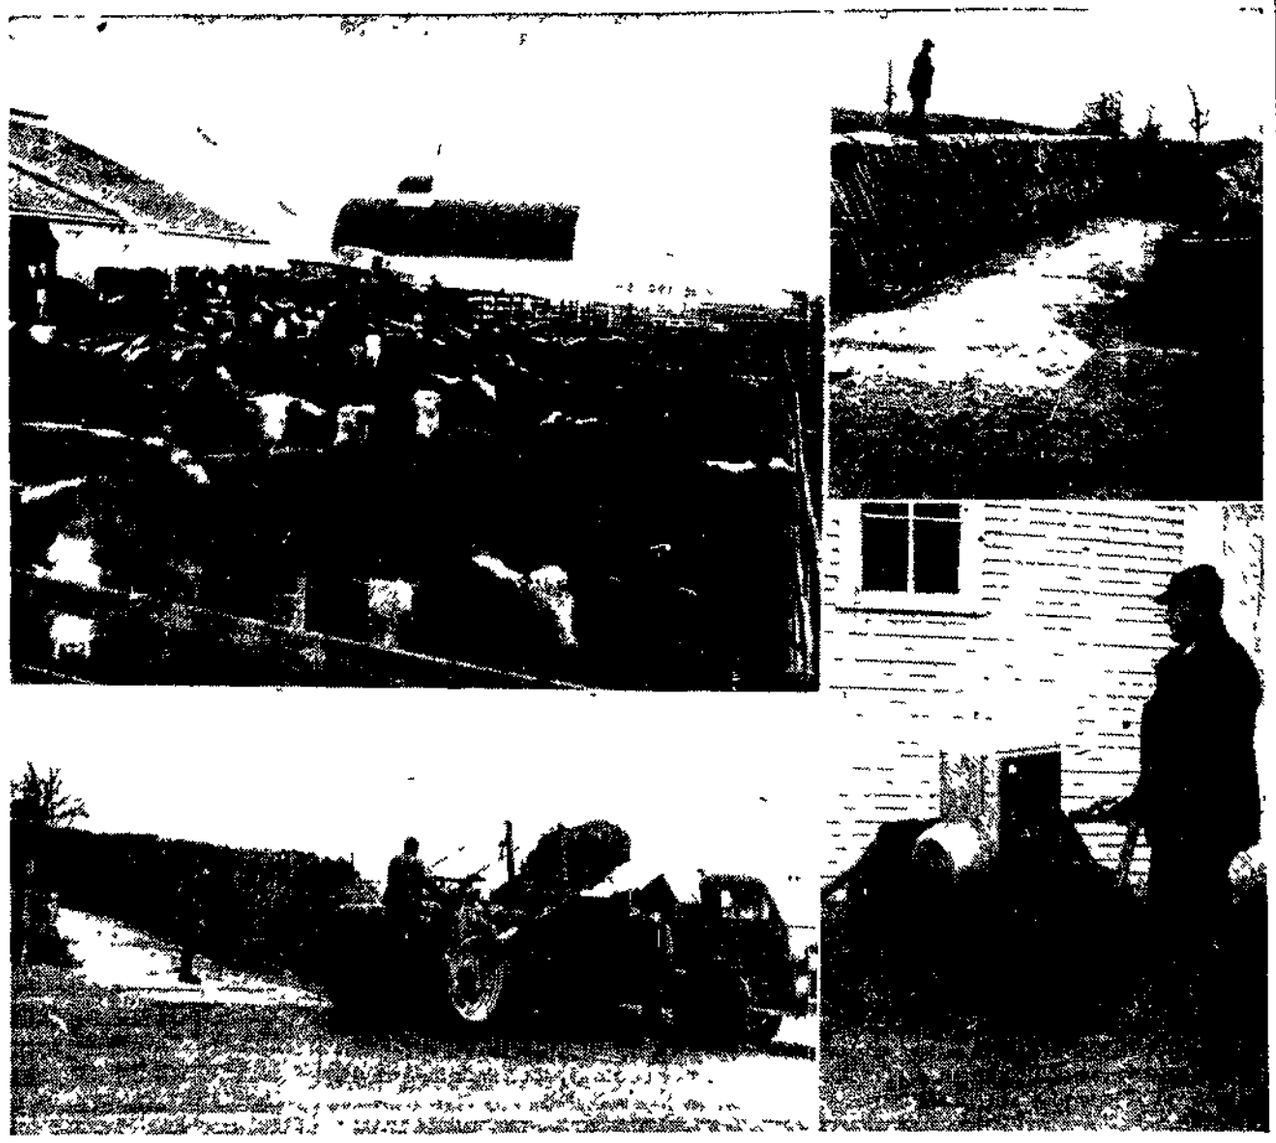
LOUDENSLAGER is in partnership with his two sons Besides them, he relies on only one hired man, Stanley Craycraft for help on his 1 000-acre farm The cattle are the main product on the Loudenslager farm

Sheep are another source of income Usually there are about 400 lambs and 250 ewes on the farm Some 200 hogs complete the main body of livestock

Out in the fields corn wheat oats, beans, hay, and grazing pasture take up most of the space Land on the farm is very fertile Last fall Loudenslager had an oats yield of close to 85 bushel per acre from one field

The Loudenslager family has been in its present location since 1913, when Forest's parents bought part of the present farm In 1925 after graduation from high school, Forest began farming with his father By making additions to the land through the years Loudenslager has built his farm into its present size His place is located on County Road 66 near the intersection with County Road 83

There are more than 1 000 000 000 cross ties on the railroads of the United States Three thousand cross ties are used in the average mile of railway track U S railroads install an average of about 50 000 000 cross ties each year



ONE OF THE LARGEST and most mechanized farms in the Marion area is the 1,000-acre farm near Big Island owned by Forest Loudenslager

'Wolf Boy' Found In India Believed Reared by Animals

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—A gaunt, snarling lad dubbed the "wolf boy" is providing medical authorities in Lucknow the twin problems of keeping him alive and determining his background.

The doctors said today the boy, who walks on all fours, wolfs down raw meat and laps water like an animal, is 9 years old. With his hair long and matted, he was found mysteriously in a railway freight car Jan. 17. Though definitely a human, doctors conjecture that he was reared by animals.

The boy was removed to the Balrampur Hospital in Lucknow, in north-central India, where symtoms of a serious circulatory ailment were noted.

Much against his will, he is being fed cooked meat, milk, porridge, fruit juices and pancakes, as well as the raw meat he likes. Despite more than two weeks of hospital care, however, he still lies huddled weakly in his bed, giving an occasional snarl and trying to bite attendants. He cringes from light. He shows little interest in his surroundings until raw meat is produced. This he devours avidly.

Airpower Use Broadened

New Concept of Fighting Developed in Korea War

TOKYO (AP) —Korea a bomb blasted peninsula sticking down into the Yellow and Japan seas, has cost the United States dearly

But Gen Otto P (Opie) Weyland believes air superiority crippled the Communists in Korea by knocking out their planes, supplies equipment and manpower, while our infantry held the forward defense line and the Navy protected the sea lines of communication.

May Save Freedom

'Although in the mind' of some men too many millions of U S dollars have been pumped into the Korean hillsides, the lessons learned may save the freedom of the world," the four-star commanding general of Far East Air Force said in an interview

'We are pretty sure now that the Communists wanted peace not because of a two-year stalemate on the ground, but to get airpower off its back

'We know U S Air Force jets, once criticized as too fast for the Korean conflict proved a superior weapon on the deck or at 50,000 feet—dissolving factories or knocking MIGs from the sky 110 to 2 as in the last two months of the fight

'We know that the jet fighter has come into its own. Forty-eight rockets, all capable of knocking down an enemy bomber or fighter, can be fired from a jet fighter Two 1,000-pound bombs or a weapon of mass destruction can be carried by jet fighters and pinpointed to demolish a factory or wipe out a military communications center, or an enemy airbase stocked with planes which could strike a score American cities"

Top Air Tactician

So says a quiet man blond, over 6 feet tall America s foremost air tactician and top combat leader, with 19 months' command experience in Europe and 36 in the Far East

A new concept of warfare was developed in the last two years of the Korean conflict—that of allowing the ground troops to hold the line while the Air Force pounds everything of value behind the lines.

There was only one thing wrong with this method—the Communists knew about it.

'Offensive air interdiction—in military language, that means blasting supply lines—was difficult after the (armistice) talks started," Weyland said, "because there was no ground offensive which would bring the enemy out into the open He didn t have to comm t his reserves or supply his front line units if he didn't want to because he knew he wasn t going to have to stop a ground offensive

"Consequently, if the enemy at the front needed supplies he simply moved back and got them. Or if he ran out of ammunition he just quit shooting. What difference did it make?

Could Save Supplies

"He could save up his ammunition in some sectors and then fire it all at once in support of a limited ground action"

Weyland said that after armistice talks began and the object of the Korean War was to gain an armistice rather than a total victory, the ground force mission was two-fold

1 Insure that all air and ground installations stayed in friendly hands

2 Defend certain terrain features with a view to minimizing casualties pending an armistice

The object of the Air Force, Weyland said, was to put so much pressure on the enemy from the sky that he would have to agree to an armistice and give up his goal of overrunning Korea

Banker Nabs Robber With Flying Tackle

MIAMI Fla (AP)—A man identified as William Lee Davisson of Clarksburg, W Va , entered the Riverside Bank yesterday and asked to see Tully F. Dunlap, the bank's 37-year-old president.

Inside Dunlap s private office the man pulled back his coat and displayed a pistol stuck in his belt

"I want $50,000, ' the man said ' Put it in a bag for me I have your wife and children in custody, so don't be too long"

Dunlap argued the man into cutting the amount to $20 000, called for the money from a cashier, handed the cash in a money bag to Davisson, and accompanied him to the front door

As they were ready to leave the bank, Dunlap brought the man down with a flying tackle and got a sranglehold on his throat

"I choked him until he squealed ' Dunlap related

A bank guard rushed to Dunlap's aid

Police said the pistol in Davisson s belt was a phoney and that he had made no move to put the finger on Mrs Dunlap and the children They said Davisson admitted serving time out West for motor car theft

He is being held for investigation by the FBI

Harding Cagers Whip Galion in Foul-Shooting Duel

Officials Call 68 for 108 Shots; Prexies Win 78-62

By JOHN SHORT

Harding snapped a three-game losing streak last night by downing Galion 78-62 in a foul-shooting contest at the Harding gym. It marked the second win of the season against Galion and lifted the Prexies' season mark to six wins and eight losses. It was the eighth loss for the visitors against five wins.

A total of 68 fouls were whistled by the officials. Thirty-seven were called against the Presidents and 31 against the visitors. An amazing 108 shots were taken from the charity line. Harding connected on 30 of 49 chances while the Tigers hit on 30 of 59.

Take Early Lead

With the exception of the excessive number of fouls, the game followed the same pattern as that in the first meeting of the teams. Harding jumped into a lead early in the opening quarter and was never behind. After building up a sizeable lead, however, the Prexies were forced to stave off determined Galion bils.

Max Kaelber dropped in a set shot from the corner after only 10 seconds of play to start the action. The Tigers managed to knot the count at 5-5 before Doug Bibler popped in a jump shot to put Harding ahead for keeps. After watching Harding spurt into a 12-6 lead the Tigers came back to cut the margin to 13-11 but the Prexies rared to a 19-12 edge at the quarter when their pressing defense stopped Galion.

The winners increased their margin to 25-14 early in the second period but another Galion spurt cut the cushion to 25-23 at the midway mark. Another Harding spurt, led by Ron Conroy and Dave Schneiker at the foul line, put Harding ahead 34-25 and at the half the score was 41-27.

Press Slows Tigers

The Prexies' press held Galion to three field and 13 points in the third period to cement the verdict. Harding was hitting for 23 markers during that frame.

Despite the unusually high number of fouls, only one player fouled out. That was Galion's big gun, Tom Quay, who left the game with six and a half minutes to go. He had led Coach Jack Shuck's charges with 10 points. The Tigers, in addition to their 30 points at the foul line hit for only 16 buckets.

Conroy was Harding's scoring leader with 16. Don Smith potted 14, Phil Carroll 11 and Bibler 10. Twelve players broke into the scoring column as Coach Jim Lawler cleared the Prexy bench.

Harding ended the game with a 37 per cent shooting average. The Prexies shot only 66 times from the field and connected on 24.

Reserves Win 10th

The Harding reserves raced to a comfortable 55-32 decision in the preliminary game to run their record to 10 wins and five losses.

The Vice Presidents could managed only a 9-5 edge in the first quarter and led at the half 15-13. They cinched the verdict with a 26-point splurge in the third period while Galion was notching 10.

Lowell Carlisle with 10 points was high for Al Beach's squad and Dave Lockwood collected nine. Leading the Galion attack were Gene Flowers, Bob Johnston and Bruce Callender all with eight points.

The Prexies will play host to Findlay's Trojans Friday night in a Buckeye League battle.

Terry Brennan Welcomed by Irish Students

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Hundreds of Notre Dame students, in an impromptu rally, yesterday gave a noisy welcome to Terry Brennan, the school's youthful new head football coach.

And the students, in a farewell salute to Frank Leahy, who on Sunday resigned after 13 years as boss of the Irish grid squad, samg the Nore Dame victory march.

The student rally, with the famous Irish marching band, broke up a news conference attended by some 80 reporters, broadcasters and photographers. They jammed the lawn in front of the Morris Inn, Notre Dame's campus hotel, scene of Brennan's first press conference. There were many members of the 1953 Irish squad in the group.

The press conference was called to mark Leahy officially turning over the head coaching job to the former Irish halfback and the school's freshman football coach last fall. At 25, Brennan is ranked as the country's youngest coach of a major college eleven.

Both Leahy and Brennan greeted the students. Leahy, visibly affected, told the students: "In Brennan you have a truly All-American coach. Support him and his teams like you have supported me and mine for the last 13 years and Notre Dame always will have a representative team."

Brennan, who will be officially introduced to the student body tonight at the basketball game between Notre Dame and Butler, told the students, "There is going to be a tremendous void at Notre Dame when Frank Leahy goes. I am going to try my best to fill in part of that void. I hope you'll help me. With your help we'll do it."

At the press conference, Brennan told reporters he planned to announce his staff of assistants within two or three days.

Asked about his military status, Brennan said he had been rated 4-F earlier because of two "busted" knees, and since his marriage was placed in a deferred classification because of his wife and two children.

Schultz Takes Fourth Spot in Scoring Chase

Kenny Schultz has climbed to fourth place among the scorers in the International Hockey League, the league reported today.

The Marion ace has belted in 38 goals and has assisted on 33 others for a total of 71 points. Dick Pontarollo of Toledo continues to set the pace with 86 points on 39 goals and 47 assists. Don Hall of Johnstown has 33 goals and 47 assists for 80 points and Toledo's Roy Hammond is third with 31 goals and 43 assists with 74 points.

Gordon Vejprava of the Barons is the league's leading goal maker with 40. He stands eighth in the scoring race with 63 points. He has assisted on 23 goals. Vejprava also leads the loop in the hat tricks with five, one more than Schultz.

Pontarollo also retained his lead in the winning goal department with eight while Toledo's Bill Tibbs continues as the league's top goal tender with six shutouts and a 2.45 average a game. Tibbs' sixth shutout established a new IHL record. The former mark of five was established last season.

Ed Montigny of Grand Rapids regained the lead in penalty time. He has spent 157 minutes in the box this season.

Dinner Held

Massillon Bids Farewell To Chuck Mather, Aides

By FRITZ HOWELL

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — With a hearty slap onthe back, Massillon last night said "So long." to football Coach Chuck Mather.

More than 400 residents of "Touchdown U.S.A." turned out for a banquet honoring Mather and four of his high school assistants who soon will take over the football future of the University of Kansas.

A. C. (Dutch) Lonberg, Kansas athletic director, was principal speaker. Toastmaster for the chummy affair was Sherlock Evans, author of the delightful "My Father Owned a Circus" and brother-in-law of Paul E. Brown who 13 years ago made the big jump from this same Massillon High School job to Ohio State.

A takeoff on the "This Is Your Life" television program brought to the banquet as surprise guests many of the persons who have played a big part in Chuck's career, as well as coaches and friends from all over the state.

Among the surprise guests were Mather's white-haired father who said, "I'm very proud of my boy;" Dr. Walter Lisle of Minerva, who officiated at Chuck's birth and who insisted he hadn't been paid yet—but boasted he's the only man who ever slapped Chuck and got away with it; and former teammates from Hopedale High School—the little institution which also graduated such notables as Gen. George Custer, movie idol Clark Gable, and Horace Greeley, whose advice "Go west, young man, go west," Mather is now observing.

Chuck's wife, son and daughter also participating in the "This Is Your Life" program, along with Clyde Lamb, Mather's coach at Ohio Northern, who said Chuck still holds the school record for the length of time spent on the bench.

The City Council and the Massillon Bar Assn. passed resolutions of regret over Mather's departure, but wished him well. Coaches of nearby Canton, whom he has beaten for six straight years in winning that number of state championships, presented him a traveling bag, wondered why he hadn't left several years ago, and urged him to "fill this bag and get going."

Chuck, after practically everyone in town had said a few friendly words, said he thought this was a good time to seek other pastures.

"If we stay here and keep on winning the's won 57 of 60 here! the other schools might get mad and not play us. And if we don't keep on winning, you fans will get mad and fire us. So I don't see how we can stay.

"Kansas is taking a big chance. Mr. Lonborg has assumed all responsibility for taking me and my staff down to Lawrence, and if we don't make good you can see the spot he's in. Can you imagine the spot Ohio State officials would be in if they hired a high school coach from Kansas?"

But Lonborg countered with:

"We believe Chuck and his staff and their families will be wonderful additions to Kansas. I know our football department is in good hands. Chuck has bought a house in Lawrence, a nice one, and I know he's going to stay.

"When I interviewed him, and listened to his thoughts on many things other than football, I said to myself, 'This isn't a high school coach—this is a big-time college coach.'

"I want one thing understood. I'm not Chuck's boss, just because I'm athletic director. I'm going to be his partner."

Attention NCAA

Bevo Racks Up 113 as Rio Whips 4-Year Team 134-91

JACKSON, Ohio (AP)—Bevo Francis, whose basketball feats border on the fantastic, today clutched his most prized possession—the undisputed record for most points scored in a college basketball game.

The 6-9 sharpshooter scored 113 points last night as Rio Grande humbled Hillsdale, 134-91. He poured in 38 field goals and made good on 37 of 45 free throws.

The significance of last night's performance by the mild-mannered marksman dates back almost a year, when he was shorn of a batch of records he set as Rio Grande bowled over 39 straight opponents.

Bevo, as a freshman, had scored 1,954 points in those 39 games, an average of 50.1, and in a game against Ashland (Ky.) Junior College piled up 116 points.

Of those 39 victims, about two-thirds were junior colleges, service teams and the like The NCAA, with an eye toward the obviously weak opposition, refused to recognize the marks. It ruled records must be set against four-year institutions granting degrees.

Bevo's 82 points last December against Bluffton gave him a new scoring record. He erased that with an 84-point burst Jan. 16 against Alliance (Pa.) College. But last night's performance was one Bevo had wished for.

"I guess I'm the luckiest guy in the world," Bevo told a newsman after the game. "I wanted to have a night like this because of what happened last year. I never cared much about points before, but I really did want to break 100 sometime this year. It seemed like I couldn't miss. And those guys who kept feeding me the ball are the greatest bunch of players in the world."

Last night's amazing performance gave Bevo 929 points for 19 games against senior colleges, an average of 48.9 per game. He needs only 41 points in five remaining games to match Johnny O'Brien's single season record of 970 points. Rio has won 16 of 20, including a win over Erie Tech of Buffalo, N. Y., a two-year school.

Bevo had 43 points last night at halftime. The second half—always Bevo's best—saw him score 70 points. He took less than 50 shots from the floor.

Scoring Spree Puts Francis on Level of 1953

BY ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Bevo Francis of little Rio Grande College smashed the college basketball scoring record for a single game last night with an incredible 113 points.

Actually, the statisticians won't have to change the name in the record book, just the figure. Bevo also held the old mark of 84 points.

He collected 38 field goals and 37 foul shots last night while leading his Rio Grande quintet to a 134-91 victory over Hillsdale for its 16th triumph in 20 games.

In 20 games, Bevo has scored 1,042 points, an average of 52.1 per game. That is exactly on a par with his performance last season, when he finished with a grand total of 1,954 points in 39 games.

But all his records last year were tossed out by the NCAA—including a single-game scoring feat of 116 points—because the opposition included too many two-year colleges. This year, Coach Newt Oliver lined up 25 opponents, including 24 four-year colleges.

While Bevo and his buddies were stealing the thunder, Kentucky cemented its position as the top team in the country by rolling over po' Georgia Tech 99-48 for its 14th triumph without a setback.

The Engineers have yet to win a game. This was defeat No. 14.

Fifth-ranking Seattle, which lost its first game on the season, now possesses the longest winning streak. The Chieftains won their 21st straight by downing Pacific Lutheran 82-64. Western Kentucky, which was idle, shows 20 straight victories without a defeat.

La Salle, No. 9 in the weekly Associated Press poll, had its troubles for a half but finished up with a 78-51 decision over Dickinson.

Joe Katchik, playing his first game for Dickinson, held All-America Tom Gola to 15 points, seven under his average for the year. The victory was the 16th of the campaign for the Philadelphians and ninth in a row. They have lost three.

Holy Cross, 10th in the nation, edged Boston College 82-77 on the wings of a 26-points rally in the fourth period. Togo Palazzi, the Crusaders' top scorer, could do no better than six points in the first half, but he found the range in the second and came out of the fray with 25.

Colorado scored an upset by thrashing Kansas 70-62. The defeat was the first of the season in the Big Seven race for the Jayhawks.

In other major action, Pitt upset Georgetown 80-73; Princeton toppled Temple 68-62; Loyola of New Orleans surprised Dayton 78-68; Niagara polished off Syracuse 90-70; South Carolina coasted over Davidson 96-73; Western Michigan shaded Washington of St. Louis 55-53; and Oregon thumped Washington State 66-51.

Johnsville Tightens Second-Place Grip

JOHNSVILLE — Johnsville downed Marengo 63-52 here last night to tighten its grip on second place in the Morrow County League. The winners raced into a 16-6 first period edge and were never in trouble.

Glen Myers with 25 points led the attack while Fry added 10. Brice was high for the losers with 19.

RICE SIGNS

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Catcher Del Rice signed a contract yesterday for his tenth season with the St. Louis Cardinals. It is believed Rice, who caught 135 games last year, signed for the same salary he received in 1953—an estimated $20,000. Last year the Porsmouth, Ohio, native hit .236 and was charged with only eight errors, fewer than any other National League catcher who appeared in 100 or more games.

4 Indians Sign Contracts; Bob Kennedy Balks

CLEVELAND (AP) — Four more Cleveland Indians have signed new contracts, but outfielder Bob Kennedy is balking.

Pitchers Bill Wight, LeRoy Wheat, Howard Rodemoyer and Marian Murszewski were the players who came into the fold, bringing the total number signed to 14.

Kennedy, however, said he was unhappy about the entire situation.

"I received a good cut in salary and, from everything I read in the papers, I must be seventh or eighth in line for the right field job," the veteran fielder said. "I read about this guy and that guy and nothing about any plans for Kennedy."

Kennedy said he would talk with general manager Hank Greenberg later in the week.

Barons, Toledo Clash in Local Finale Tonight

Marion's Barons and the visiting Toledo Mercurys wage their battle for second spot in the International Hockey League tonight on the Coliseum ice.

Trailing the second-placers by a single point, a win by the Barons would elevate them into second spot with 56 points, 12 off the pace of the league-leading Cincinnati Mohawks.

The locals have been able to notch only two victories in six meetings with the visitors this year, one here and one away.

The Barons posted a 3-1 win there Jan. 2 but Toledo came right back to notch a 3-1 decision the next day. Toledo also won 6-3, 4-3, and 5-2 wins over the Barons.

Tonight's game will mark Toledo's final appearance here but the locals will be in Toledo once more before the IHL season ends March 14.

Gordon Vejprava, scoring ace of the Barons, who suffered a twisted knee Saturday night at Cincinnati, will be ready for action tonight against Toledo, officials of the club have announced.

It was originally feared Vejprava would be forced to miss the game due to the injury, at first thought to be a torn ligament. The knee, however, has responded to treatment.

However, one Baron will be missing from the lineup tonight. Ted Lebioda will be sitting out this game for his part in a fight at Toledo recently which ended in his suspension.

"Phats" Perras will be in action again as the Barons' goalie in the game tonight according to club officials. Lou Crowdis returned to Cleveland Tuesday for further action with the parent club as a substitute for the injured Emile Francis. The move forced the Cleveland club to sign Crowdis but officials of the local club reported his amateur card would be reinstated after Francis returns, probably this weekend.

The game here will be the only IHL action tonight. In action last night, last-place Milwaukee downed fourth-place Johnstown—marion's opposition for third spot in the league standings—5-3 and Grand Rapids trimmed Ft. Wayne 8-5.

The Barons will appear in three more games this week Thursday, Marion is at Troy and Saturday the locals are at Toledo before coming back here to face Ft. Wayne on the Coliseum ice Sunday.

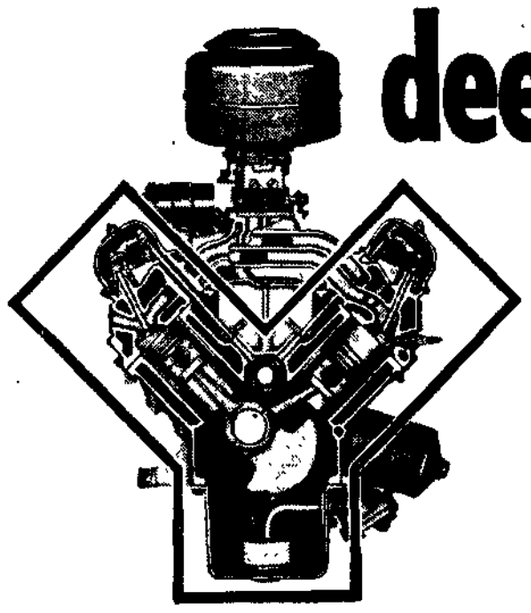
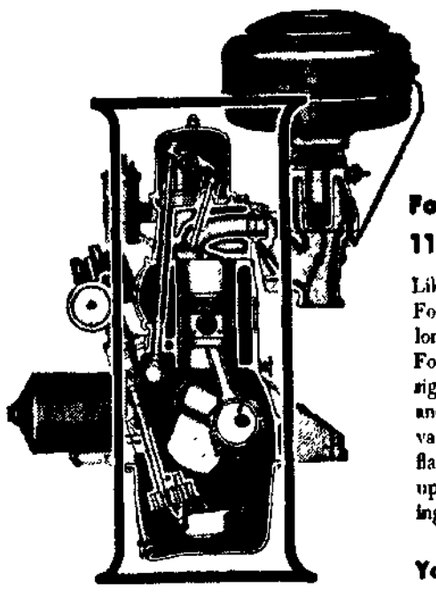
Ford presents two new deep-block engines



They're the industry's most modern engines with free-turning Overhead Valves and integral valve guides . . . high-compression, low-friction design . . . and extra deep-skirted crankcases. Both engines are designed for long life with smooth, economical performance.

Ford's new 130-h.p. Y-block V-8

This brand new Overhead-Valve V-8 has an extra-deep block which resembles a "Y" in cross-section. This new deep-block design means greater rigidity for smoother, quieter performance . . . longer engine life. Other features which make this engine a long-lived, smooth, savingful performer are: new low-friction (short-stroke) design, Free-Turning Overhead Valves, new 5-bearing crankshaft, and new high-turbulence combustion chambers.



Ford's new 115-h.p. I-block SIX

Like the new Y-block V-8, this engine has Ford's deep-block design for greater rigidity, longer engine life. Also, like the V-8, you get Ford's modern manifolding, low-friction design, high-turbulence combustion chambers, and Ford's Automatic Power Pilot. One advantage of both new engines is an amazingly flat "torque curve" which gives you top pick-up power through the whole range of driving speeds.

Check the extra dividends in the '54 FORD

Your Ford Dealer invites you to inspect and Test Drive Ford's new dividends for '54. You'll find new, smooth-riding, easy-handling Ball-Joint Front Suspension . . . a new, stronger frame . . . 5 optional power assists* . . . beautiful new styling, inside and out. They're all reasons why Ford's the one fine car in the low-price field.
*Available at extra cost

You are cordially invited to come in and Test Drive the '54 Ford

Galion Council Approves Test Drilling at Site

GALION — Further test drill holes at the site of the proposed raw water storage reservoir were authorized in a resolution passed by City Council Tuesday night.

The resolution accepts the report of the H. C. Nutting Co. with reference to making the test drill holes and authorizes the company to drill approximately five holes, some 15 feet deep at the rate of $3.75 per foot, with $150 allowed for moving the company's equipment to the site. Land for the new up-ground reservoir recently was secured from the Powers estate.

Council also passed Ordinance 3157 which established the duties of the chemist of the city and fixes his salary $450 per month. He is to supervise chemical treatment of city water and do other work assigned to him. The ordinance also provides for repeal of a previous ordinance which had established the position of superintendent of water treatment plant, filtration plant, sewage disposal, and Heise Park swimming pool physical equipment. The position, held by Charles Gruber, provides for an increase in salary from $415 to $450 because of added duties, it was explained by Mayor Francis C. Schalip.

A new ordinance was introduced and passed as an emergency measure to purchase two new halfton trucks, one for the water and sewer and other associated departments of the city, and the other for the water treatment plant.

The rules also were suspended to pass another ordinance which provides for employment in the meter division of the city. It establishes classifications of classified civil service and laborers employed by the department of utilities including the meter division, and regulating the rates of pay of each employe.

Another resolution adopted by Council gives permission to proceed with extension of a city water main on the N. State Road.

Elyria Drivers Solve Problem, Buy Bus Lines

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP) — Instead of striking against the Elyria Transit Co., four drivers went in with another man and bought the line.

Ruben F. Adams, local president of the AFL bus drivers union which had been threatening a wage strike, became company vice president in the swap yesterday.

The other new owners are drivers Willard Roberts, Art Booth and William Griffin Jr., and a fifth, silent partner.

Roberts, the new president, said they paid between $30,000 and $40,000 with a $5,000 down payment for the line which runs between Elyria and nearby Grafton. The company employs 27 drivers and has 19 busses.

Robert St. John of Dayton, former president, reported he lost $15,000 during 15 months of operation, but the new management hopes to show a profit.

Spend 355 Days in Jail

Drunken Drivers Pay $8,500 in Fines

Mixing drinking with driving proved a costly and time-consuming luxury for motorists hailed into Marion Municipal Court during 1953 on drunken driving charges.

In a review of court records, Mrs. Clara Fleck, clerk, and F. H LeMasters, bailiff, reported a total of $8,600 was collected from fines and bond forfeitures during the year.

EACH OF 64 drivers fined also paid court costs which usually are $6.20 but in some cases are higher. At the minimum, this would boost the total collected to some $9,000.

These drivers also spent a total of 355 days in jail in keeping with a policy announced by Judge W Dexter Hazen Jan. 1, 1953. This called for five-day jail terms for all persons convicted of drunken driving.

Judge Hazen adopted this plan on the theory that many drivers were not awakened to the deadly seriousness of their offense by the customary $100 and costs fine.

Perhaps the addition of a five-day jail term to the fine and revocation of driver's license for three years would provide the necessary jolt, he reasoned.

HAS IT? "Yes, answers Judge Hazen even though there has been only a slight decline in the total number of drunk driving arrests.

"The policy has helped keep local drivers from getting behind the wheel after they have had a few," he explained. Those who previously would have laughed off a $100 fine now think twice before drinking and driving because of the five-day jail term.

A large share of drivers now being arrested by city police and state highway patrolmen are from out of town, Judge Hazen said. This is the reason there has been no appreciable decline in drunken driving cases in the court. Drivers from out of town are not aware of the stiff penalty imposed in Marion and less cautious about driving while drunk, he explained.

THE FACTS taken from the records by Mrs. Fleck and LeMasters show in addition to those who paid fines and served five days in jail, there were six—mostly from other states—who forfeited bonds of from $100 to $300.

There was also one case dismissed because of lack of evidence, another in which the charge was reduced, two which are pending disposition, one in which the driver was bound over to the grand jury on manslaughter charges, and another in which the driver was sentenced to 30 instead of five days in jail.

One final statistic reported was that the drivers who were fined and sentenced to jail also lost a total of 195 years of drivers' licenses. Judge Hazen snspends the licene of each convicted driver for a three-year priod.

American Crews To Fly for French In Indochina War

HONG KONG (AP) — American crews soon will be flying supply troop planes for the French in the Indochina war again, headquarters of the American-owned Civil Air Transport disclosed today.

CAT has been notified by its Indochina agent that a French contract to fly 12 C119 Flying Boxcars will be ready shortly.

CAT's board chairman is C. L. Chennault, former chief of the Flying Tigers.

CAT flew six C119s on war supply missions in Indochina for six weeks. The French borrowed planes from U. S. Air Force depots in the Far East. American Air Force pilots flew them to Indochina, turned them over to the French air force and CAT crews flew them for the French.

Later, a small number of French crews trained in Europe took them over.

When the emergency was ended, the planes were returned to the U. S Air Force.

A CAT spokesman said he assumed the same arrangement was planned now with CAT crews flying the planes until French crews are available.

Government Puts Surplus Old Crop Corn on Market

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department Tuesday put 185 million bushels of its surplus old-crop corn on the market at a slight reduction in price, a move to get rid of it before it deteriorates.

The price was set at the market price, but not less than the current support level for corn in the county in which the grain is stored. Previously, the price was five per cent above the support level, plus carrying charges.

The current support rate averages $1.60 a bushel nationally but varies widely by counties.

Narriman Gets Quick Divorce From Farouk

CAIRO, Egypt. (AP) — Beautiful, 20-year-old former Queen Narriman won a quick divorce in a Moslem religious court here Tuesday from tubby ex-King Farouk after a month of behind-the-scene negotiations.

The girl Farouk first saw in 1949 as she shopped for her engagement ring wih another man renounced custody of her 2-year-old son, Ahmed Fuad, and also dropped her demand that the ex-King personally pay her monthly alimony of 5,000 Egyptian pounds ($14,400) and a dowry allowance of 10,000 pounds ($28,800).

Instead, her lawyer said, she will ask President Mohamed Naguib's revolutionary government to pay her those moneys out of Farouk's properties in Egypt, which the new regime confiscated when it dethroned and exiled him in July 1952.

Her chances of getting the money appear problematical.

Narriman in her divorce suit had charged her husband with adultery, maltreatment, mental cruelty and estrangement. The settlement prevented the airing of any details that may have escaped newspaper reporters who have avidly followed the ex-King's cavortungs about Europe with a succession of young women.

Neither the ex-King, whose home in exile is in Italy, nor Narriman, who lives with her family in suburban Heliopolis, was in the packed courtroom today.

After their lawyers presented the agreement renouncing alimony and the child's custody, the judge pronounced the divorce.

It was the second such marital severance for Farouk, who will be 34 next month. In 1938 he married the teen-age daughter of an Egyptian diplomat and she became Queen Farida. He divorced her in 1948.

They Never Agreed

One look at some of the unemployment guesses being tossed about right now and a citizen who remembers what was happening 20 years ago recalls a matter on which no agreement ever was reached.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reported one unemployment total when unemployment was a matter of daily interest during the early thirties. This was the official figure.

The American Federation of Labor used to report another total entirely. The National Association of Manufacturers had another one, and there were several others thrown in for good measure by other organizations with a lively interest in the subject. These totals were unofficial but they packed a wallop.

There were two sources of trouble. First, there was no systematic way to collect information from communities scattered from coast to coast. The communities, themselves, had no systematic way to collect information. All the reports, including the official one, were guess work.

Second, there was no definition of an unemployed person. Leftists who wanted to make it appear the United States had gone to pot, insisted every person not working at a regular, full-time job was therefore unemployed.

The resulting clash of views led to discrepancies of millions in unemployment totals. There isn't enough unemployment now to admit such large discrepancies, but there is the same lack of definition.

Benjamin F. Fairless was talking about this a few days ago. Since 1945, he recalled, there has been an average of about 2¼ million persons listed as unemployed. This is the irreducible minimum in a large country where seasonal jobs and normal shifts of jobholders from one area to another account for much apparent unemployment.

Yet, when a midwinter slump plus disturbances resulting from the end of the Korean war cause unemployment to increase to a point still lower than was reached in 1949, leftists try to make it appear the United States is in a tailspin and must have a revival of authoritarian control.

Since June 20, 1948

After a futile conference of foreign ministers at the close of 1947, George C. Marshall, who then was secretary of state, pointed out a basic truth about international negotiations.

"Paper agreements," he declared," cannot assure a lasting peace. Agreements between sovereign nations are generally the reflection and not the cause of genuine settlements.

On June 20, 1948, the foreign ministers broke up a parley after nearly a month of fruitless debate. The Soviet Union was in no mood to reach agreements.

The question now is whether or not the government of the Soviet Union is in a different mood. Prime Minister Churchill believes it may have changed. President Eisenhower opened the door to negotiation last spring when he made it plain that the United States was willing to talk if the Soviet Union was ready to reach an agreement.

The specific agreement being sought is a settlement on Germany and Austria. Such things as military security and measures to keep the French from growing alarmed are secondary, though of great importance.

There is a new regime in the Soviet Union. Molotov, it is believed, will be speaking for a clique which welcomed the end of Stalin's regime. He will negotiate, moreover, in a background of unrest in East Germany.

Since 1948 there also have been new regimes in the United States and Great Britain. This will be the first meeting with Molotov by Secretary of State Dulles and Foreign Secretary Eden. The French minister, Bidault, is an old hand.

The Fight's Over, Gentlemen

This new "grand engineer" of the Locomotive Engineers, Guy L. Brown, is living up to his reputation for saying what he knows to be true, regardless of what others want him to say.

His latest outburst is on the jubject of the St. Lawrence seaway. "For 25 years our brotherhood, along with other units of railroad labor and the railways themselves have opposed this seaway," he declares. "Now I am convinced that it is a futile battle and we will spend no more time or money on a lost cause."

Then to clinch his proposition that the world changes and intelligent people must adapt themselves to the changes. Brown suggests that all railroad people get together to take advantage of the changes the seaway ultimately will bring to the Great Lakes area.

The new head of the Locomotive Engineers is old enough to remember that railroads opposed the Panama Canal as bitterly as they have opposed the St. Lawrence seaway—and for the same reason. They wanted to shut out a rival in the transportation business. They did not foresee the advent of trucks and planes. Nor did they foresee the advent of economic growth which would make their fears of being forced out of business groundless.

Punitive Tactics

Liberals Play Politics in Beeson Nomination

Thought control and the punishing of a man for his previous affiliations or economic beliefs seems to be a bad thing when a "Liberal" is the victim, but praiseworthy when the so-called "Liberals" themselves want to keep a man out of the government of the United States.

The latest example is the action of the six Democratic members of the Senate Labor Committee who formally recommended in their report to the Senate that the nomination of Albert C. Beeson, as a member of the National Labor Relations Board, be rejected.

The report says frankly that the six Democratic senators "do not question Mr. Beeson's candor, honesty or integrity," but that they do question whether his experience as a spokesman for management in collective bargaining in the past would "color" his judgment.

IF ADOPTED as a policy in the Senate, it would mean that no man hereafter could work for the Labor Board who had ever served a trade union or the management side.

It would mean that an American citizen would be disqualified from holding office and would be adjudged to be devoid of "impartiality" just because he once worked on the management or labor side.

Such a rule would have disqualified Cy Ching, who recently retired as head of the U. S. Conciliation Service and who, prior to his service in the government, was employed as head of industrial relations for the U. S. Rubber Company. Yet he did win the confidence of both labor and management.

Carried to its logical conclusion, the discriminatory policy would mean that labor mediators, arbitrators and other personnel could never qualify for service in the government in connection with he labor bureaus and boards of the government if they previously worked for management or labor.

IT IS THE MOST dangerous kind of persecution, and the so-called "liberals" who are sponsoring it are plainly violating the basic principle of fairness in their recommendation.

It was President Franklin D. Roosevelt — the hero of the "liberals"—who first proclaimed the doctrine of thought control in respect to appointees for government boards and commissions.

In 1933, Mr. Roosevelt wrote a letter removing William E. Humphrey from the Federal Trade Commission because, as Mr. Roosevelt expressed it, he was sure that Mr. Humphrey's decisions "would not go along with" the mind of the President.

This case was carried to the Supreme Court of the United States on a claim for back salary, and, by a unanimous decision, the court held in May 1935 that Mr. Humphrey was a member of a "quasi-judicial" commission and therefore could not be removed for any such reason.

The National Labor Relations Board is a "quasi-judicial" commission. In selecting members for it, as is the case with judges on a court, it is a serious thing to say that a man cannot be impartial after he takes the oath to perform judicial duties.

Yet one of the most noted of all "liberals" the late Sen. Norris of Nebraska, an Independent, made a bitter fight against the confirmation of Charles Evans Hughes to be chief justice because of a charge that Mr. Hughes had accepted fees as a corporation lawyer. Mr. Norris lived to retract his charge and to commend the career of Mr. Hughes.

THE SAME KIND of attack was made on Judge John J. Parker, of the U.S. Court of Appeals, who was nominated by President Hoover to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Mr. Parker's confirmation was beaten by the shameful tactics of labor-union lobbyists who charged that he once had sided against labor in an important case before the federal courts. Today he is acclaimed far and wide—even by labor unions—as a truly "liberal" judge. But he never got the appointment as supreme court justice that he deserved.

When a man of good character, honesty and integrity comes up for confirmation by the Senate and his previous employment gives him experience in the subject matter, it would seem that all groups would be eager to give him a chance to serve.

The "liberals" in the Senate are playing politics, and they don't seem to mind the punitive tactics of "thought control" when they are doing the punishing.

To Each His Own

By TRUMAN TWILL

Most of us must make our marks in this vale of tears the hard way. Our names and our faces are not known. No press agentry strews our paths with flowers. We are unheralded before we arrive, unremembered after we depart.

They never roll out the welcome mat for us because they never know we're coming. Whatever impression we make must be made in a fleeting instant. We must make do, like a Vermont farmer, with he handicaps we were born with.

But never misjudge us. We are sometimes down but we are never out until they lock the door. We have our ways and means of making our presence felt—of standing in the sun for an instant.

We sing and dance. We do poor imitations and tell old jokes. We have idiosyncrasies of behavior which we cherish and polish like rare jewels.

We wear clothes which call attention to us. We do litle tricks, polish lititle skills and nurture little arts which will make it possible for us to step out of obscurity now and then for a moment of attention while we perform. We bake a cake, cut a caper and flip our lids.

We call attention, humorously, to peculiarities which we hope will attract favorable attention, such as the fact one of our fingers is double-jointed. Or perhaps we have nothing more notable than an ankle that makes a snapping noise when it is moved from a certain position.

We recount at great length the pecularity of our personal ailments. Or we recount at greater length what we believe to be mental characteristics which separate us from the faceless herd. We can recite the alphabet backward or remember poetry.

We are wholly dedicated to the proposition that our personality shall not lie hidden under a bushel. We are tireless in our efforts to light our candles and have them revealed for all to see, if anyone is looking.

As one always being outshone by people who do nip-ups, play musical instruments, recite statistics, poetry and the names of ball players who were contemporaries of Nick Altrock, I have had as tough a struggle as anyone alive to call attention to myself.

My stock in trade consists at this moment, as it has consisted for the last umpsteen years, of two small tricks.

I can crouch down, grab the toes of my shoes with my fingertips and jump off the floor without letting go.

I can make a semi-musical noise while holding liquid in my throat —a kind of harmonious gargling. There has been no demand recently for either of these. Yet they are my sole claim to fame.

Without some sensational addition to this meager repertoire, there is nothing ahead but the utter oblivion in which billions of creatures are destined to live and die. I may never even get on a quiz show and go, "Dha," when the man asks the big question.

Obscurity, make room for another cipher.

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

James Emery, one of the early settlers of Marion County, was born the same day that two former presidents, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, died, July 4, 1826. His birthplace was along the banks of the Whetstone River in Richland Township where his parents, John and Catherine Wagner Emery, had settled some six year previously. The first school he attended was one managed on the subscription plan and located a mile and a half from his home. He held several township offices including that of assessor, trustee and school director.

Unique Court Pays Inventors Their Due

By Sylvia Short

LONDON

The Royal Commission on Awards to Inventors which was set up in London in 1946 to settle disputed claims for wartime inventions is now nearing completion of its enormous task.

So far the commission has heard 400 claims out of more than 2,000 applications for a hearing and has paid out almost two million dollars in award money.

The longest case the commission has considered was that of the invention of radar.

At the end of the hearings, which lasted a year, they finally awarded $140,000 to Sir Robert Watson-Watt "To whose foresight and initiative was primarily due the development of those many ingenious applications of radar which proved so potent an aid to the successful issue of the war."

The commission has also paid out something like $70,000 to other persons for inventions connected with radar.

THE CLAIMS heard by the commision fall principally into two classes. Claims by firms or individuals who hold patent rights in inventions used during the war and claims, generally from individuals, who have no monopoly right in their invention, but who can prove that they were undoubtedly responsible for producing it.

The commission considers that these people have a right to some payment or recognition for their work. By far the greater number of claims heard by the commission fall into the latter category.

Britain is almost unique in recognizing claims from inventors who hold no patent right. In the U.S. only inventors who have patented their designs or inventions have a legal right to claim recompense. Under a wartime agreement between the U.S. and Britain, American claimants are dealt with by their own courts.

The largest payment made to an individual by the commission was the award of $280,000 to Sir Frank Whittle who developed jet propulsion.

SIR DONAL BAILEY the inventor of the now famous Bailey Bridge was awarded $34,000.

The largest payment made to persons holding the patented right in an invention used by the British during the war was that of $346,000 to a French firm in connection with the undercarriage of the Halifax Bomber.

Individual claimants who have no legal standing must, in the majority of cases, be able to produce a prototype or design of their invention. However, there are one or two instances of people being given monetary awards for a bright idea.

Two men have been paid $1,400 each for suggesting the idea of a pipe line under the ocean. Pluto, as it became known, made possible the invasion of Europe by the Allied forces in 1944. Although neither of the two men concerned had any idea how their suggestion could be used it was felt that the immense value of the invention merited some recognition.

PAYMENTS VARYING from $500 to several thousand dollars have been awarded for such inventions as motor torpedo boats, the anti-mine flail device for tanks, fresh water stills for lifeboats, target indicator bombs, stretcher carriages, plastic armor and sten gun barrels.

No woman has claimed an award for a wartime invention, although several payments have been made to the widows of inventors.

Before its work is finished the commission will hear claims dealing with DDT, the insecticide, and inventions concerning naval gunnery.

At the moment the commission is considering a test case in relation to awards to employes of firms with contracts with the Crown. The question to be decided is whether the employes themselves should be rewarded.

If this is allowed there will literally be hundrds of thousands of similar claims.

The four men making the present claim which concerns the disc seal triode value were all, at the time of its development, employed by the Standard Telephone and Cable Company.

Fair and completely impartial hearings are held regularly in a special courtroom and financial assistance is readily given to those claimants who cannot afford a lawyer to present their case.

Bicycle to Video

By FRANK TRIPP

A 60 years conquest for people's time began when folks started gadding. Americans had been a race of stay-at-homes. The family fireside was a brief nightly forum. Ten o'clock was late to go to bed.

A touring melodrama, a church supper or a lecture by a man who had been up Pike's Peak made a lively week for the average household. Evenings were spent with stereoscope pictures of Niagara Falls, the magic lantern, charades and homework. Most evenings found everybody under the kerosene hanging lamp — reading.

SUCCESSIVELY the bicycle, automobile, movies, radio and television have changed the scene. Up to 1890 the newspaper was the only means of mass communication; the horse the only means of individual transportation.

Came the bicycle and for the first time in history the common man could take himself places. He went, and the release of his pent - up wanderlust was what made the Nineties gay. The nation went on a cycling bender.

I REMEMBER losing customers who were too absorbed with cycling to have time to read when I was a newspaperboy. It is of record that in 1896 a single New York news agency suffered a volume loss of a million dollars; fabulous in those days. Tailors, shoemakers, theaters, cafes faced bankruptcy. Cigar sales fell off 700 millions a year. A barber wrote to Harper's Weekly, ". . .there is nothing to my business any longer; the bicycle has ruined it."

The newspaper weathered the bike spree, grew and prospered.

At the turn of the century the horseless carriage and "flickers" in Nickelodeons joined the conquest; feebly at first, but soon to outdo the bicycle as time consumers.

The movies entered the advertising field. The public rebelled; forced ads of consequence off the cinema screen. The motion picture settled into its niche; the newspaper grew, prospered.

Up to then diversions had only competed for peoples' time. None had supplied any service given by the newspaper.

So comes radio. It kept people home, where the newspaper goes. It would never go into the news business; it was just show business. Its advertising could meet the fate that befell the movies. Listeners would throw it out.

The same thoughts pestered the radio pioneers: until they did go into the news field. And scared the living daylights out of half of the newspaper world. Still the newspaper grew, prospered.

WHILE THE BATTLE raged newspapers rose to their all-time high in circulation, advertising and quality. Perfected radio settled into its niche.

Television is a composite of the movie and the radio. It too will settle into its useful niche, and with newspaper and radio form a triumvirate of public service known to no peoples save Americans.

The newspaper has grown fourfold in the three score years of conquest. It needs only tend to its own knitting; stay as local as the town pump.

An Iowa Teachers College reports that today's children cry less and are better behaved than those of a generation ago. What a silly comparison! Those weren't children; those were us.

Dear Ike: Your remarks on the Yanks who went over to the Commies are okay. You are for all the facts on just how much torture and brainwashing went into it. Fair enough. And I wish you would say a word to straighten out the thinking of people who throw up their hands and cry, "How could so many American boys do a thing like this?"

What they need to have emphasized is that there were only about two dozen out of the hundreds of thousands in our fighting forces, and the tens of thousands captured and tortured, many of them to death. I will give you the same number of civilians in any back-home setup and bet the percentage of bad eggs, queer thinkers, wrongoes and mixedpup characters will be much greater.

Of the 21 who have now joined the Commies, there are some who are just weak sisters and lame brains who never did get the right picture. There are some who never got back to normal after brainwashings and are functioning on only three cylinders.

There are some genuine punks who are no bargain to any civilization. And there are some who ratted on their buddies and know the evidence is all in. But if you took the crowd at any football game (even the classiest ones) and only found a couple of dozen in the stadium who were Stoopnagles, nuts, double - dealers or victims of cockeyed conclusions, wouldn't it be unusual?

Does anybody doubt that in a crowd at any world series game it would be a big break if only 21 in the grandstands, boxes and bleachers were heels or all-around baddies?

Did you ever go to a big outdoor fight, Ike? In the 10,000 to 25,000 folks in the mob, would you bet nobody could find two dozen with low principles, cheap notions, minimum courage, nutty notions and a low resistance point under pressure?

Take any convention, rally, mass meeting, free - for - all fight or barbecue in which there are a few thousand people involved and I will bet you that an estimate of only 21 who are screw balls, double - dealers or sufferers from wrong ideas will get you a low rating as a statistician or poll taker.

Not that I am excusing these members of the Commies 21 Club or taking any kindly look at deserters. I am just saying that the percentage is low and that the Army, Navy, Marines and Air Force will always come out of any such checkup as good if not better than the folks back home would come out of such a checkup, bearing in mind, too, that the back-home guys and dolls don't find it nearly so hard to keep straight.

They never have split bamboo sticks driven up under their fingernails before they weaken. In my book, Ike, the American fighting forces can hold their heads high unbothered by the Red China Twenty-One Club. It's too small to count.

Yours truly

Opening nights at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York will now be telecast to theaters all over the nation. This can bring opera into the TV ratings with wrestling, boxing and roller skating. The telecast will include scenes in the foyer and bar, thus giving millions all over the U.S.A. a chance to see a society man standing on his head in a lobby or a dowager playing leapfrog with a waiter in the cafe.

Headache of the year is to be found among the dealers in used cars.

DOUBLE DUTCH DUNKING. While 6-year-old Peter Eerhart manages to keep his head above the water at right, his would-be rescuer, a local policeman, is fully occupied trying to scramble to safety in Amsterdam's ice-covered Transvaal Canal in Holland. The youngster had broken through the ice and the policeman's rescue efforts ended in another icy plunge. Both were pulled to safety by a second policeman.

Turkey's President Gets New Jeep in Toledo Tour

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Turkish president Celal Bayar—who campaigned for election three years ago riding in a Jeep over dusty Turkish roads—gets a new one today right off the Willys Motors assembly lines.

Painted in Turkish national colors of red and white, the new Jeep is the present of Willys president Edgar Kaiser, who escorts the high-ranking visitor on a tour of the plant.

To Tour Art Museum

President Bayar's Toledo itinerary also includes the Museum of Art and a meeting with a group from the city's Greek Orthodox community.

Accompanied by his wife, Mme. Reshide Bayar, and a party of top Turkish diplomatic officials, all on a month-long cross country visit, the President was welcomed in Toledo last night by Gov. Frank Lausche and Mayor Ollie Czelusta.

At a Toledo club reception, Gov. Lausche praised the 70-year-old chief executive and his country for "standing steadfast with this country under most dangerous circumstances—a common border with the Soviet Union."

Earlier in the day, President Bayar was in Cleveland, where he attended receptions by the Cleveland Council on World Affairs, the Chamber of Commerce and the Union Club.

Visit Strip Mill

The presidential party, accompanied by C. M. White, president of Republic Steel Corp., toured a Republic strip mill in the Cuyahoga Valley. White personally explained the operation of the mill the biggest in the world.

At a luncheon sponsored by the Council on World Affairs, President Bayar said, "We Turks shall always be proud to fight side by side with the United States for the progress and advancement of humanity."

Among the presents given the Turkish head and his wife in Cleveland were:

Roses and orchids by Mrs. Lausche and Mrs. Anthony J. Celebrezze, wife of Cleveland's mayor.

A baseball by pitcher Bob Feller of the Cleveland Indians.

A football by Otto Graham, quarterback of the Cleveland Browns.

President Bayar said he would send the sports equipment to a sports museum at Ankara, capital of Turkey.

MILFORD, N. H. (UP)—Survey of nine weeks of tardiness and absenteeism for the seventh through the ninth grades here showed: 1,028 absentees or loss of 3,084 "pupil hours of learning." 160 cases of tardiness, with more than 17 pupils late three or more times, Tenth and 11th grade pupils were the worst offenders, responsible for 63 per cent of the tardiness. A post-survey note to parents said: "It is quite obvious that this is not a good situation."
